'BREAKING IN' STUDENT TEACHERS

By TERESA GRODZICKI

Mr. Charles Yoder is a student teacher of the Russian Language from Indiana University where he did his undergraduate and graduate work. He is teaching first, second, and sixth hours which are second, first, and fourth year classes respectively. Russian is his major and French is his minor. Soon he will also begin to teach a first year French class during fourth hour.

Mr. Yoder is from Middlebury, Indiana. In the summer he enjoys swimming and in the winter he reads and listens to music in his free time. As far as teaching is concerned, he likes it very much!

Mr. Robert Zellers is a former Washington High School graduate now doing his student teaching at W.H.S. He is teaching government second and third hour and economics sixth hour. At Indiana University he majored in social studies and minored in chemistry.

In his free time Mr. Zellers enjoys "autos and athletics."

If there is an opening in the school system for next year, Mr. Zellers may teach, but if not, he wants to go back to school to get his Master's Degree in 'Guidance and Counseling'.

When asked his impression of teaching he said he enjoys it and all the students!

The Hatchet to 'Do It Again!'

On October 15, '65 over 900 teens attended the Hatchet Anniversary Dance which was held in the school gym.

Next Friday, May 20, the Hatchet will do it again. On this date the Hatchet will sponsor a dance entitled, "The Last Swing". This will be the last school dance of the year, and promises to be the biggest dance of the entire school history.

To do things right the Hatchet will feature two top bands and as an added attraction one of our local d-j-'s. The bands are the Chessmen and the Teen Tones. Chris Connor of W. J. V. A. will be here to entertain with the top recorded sounds of the day.

After each band has had an individual chance to entertain, it will take part in a "Battle of the Bands".

Chris Connor will provide recorded sounds while the bands take a break, and he will also take part in the battle of sound.

The cost of the dance is only $1.00 for a ticket purchased in advance. The cost of admission at the door will be $1.25. Tickets can be purchased from any Hatchet staff member.

IF YOU GO TO WORK

Vacation time and graduation time will soon be here. Many of you will secure jobs which are covered by the Social Security Act. Most employers will want to see your social security card before they will place you on the payroll. So, KEEP YOUR CARD IN A SAFE PLACE. If you have lost your original card, you should call at or write the Social Security District Office listed below. They will secure the original number issued to you, as that ONE number is THE ONLY ONE YOU SHOULD EVER USE. If you never had a number, you can secure an account number card by calling at or writing to:

'Stardust' Theme of Soph's Class Party

Once again, as in every school year, the sophomore class of Washington High School united in a combined effort to have a party. The theme of the party was "Stardust" and music was provided for by the "MRQ's."

President Dennis Perry, along with the other office holders (vice-president Pat Washington, sec'y. Drew Vilegan, and social chairman Alan Waters) have planned the party. Members of the decorations committee were: Vicki Voss (chairman), Marsha Craycraft, John Goodrich, Cris Kuharic, Jim Leach, Doris Parker, Jacinta Polack, Sue Radecki, Janet Skorupski, Linda Sobieralski, Ron Strzelecki, Judi Trzaskowski, Barb Turza, Angela Winkowski, and Kathy Zygulski.

Committee members for the refreshment committee were: Karen Andrysiak, Rosilie Miller (chairman), Pat Cholasinski, Gary Cotrell, Rita Gapinski, Chris Jozwiak, Gail Pluta, Karen Stachowiak, Linda Strozewski and Terry Vande Zande.

On the committee for publicity were: Doris Parker, Phyllis Staszewski, Joyce Opaczewski (chairman), Mary Wallis, Pam Mattix, and Ellen Featherstone.

The party was from 7:30 till 10:30 on May 13, in the gym of the school. All sophomores and their guests were invited to attend.

SPYCHALSKI GIVEN SCHOLARSHIP

Senior Rebecca Spychalski was recently awarded a $200 scholarship by the National Secretary Association. Becky, who has been on Co-op since January, works in the Accounting Department at the Associates Investment Company.

Becky is a member of the newly instituted Future Secretary Association at Washington. The club, which also consists of Riley and St. Joseph High Schools, holds monthly business meetings at the Main Library. A guest speaker is present at every meeting to confer with approximately eighty girls on different topics pertaining to the business field.

To have been eligible for the scholarship, a girl had to plan on continuing her education. After an interview, Becky was awarded the money by two representatives on the Riverbend Chapter of the National Secretary Association.

Becky plans to enroll at the Indiana University Campus this fall and major in Business. She also intends to take courses in medicine. Her tentative plans are to work full time this summer and also during the coming school term while attending classes part-time.

Would You Believe?

Would you believe I am Cleopatra who has enrolled in your school to spend one year learning about the life of a typical high school student in an above average school, in an above average town and state?

Would you believe I gave up seven blissful days of floating down the Nile to come here in a 1959 Lark and spend five days a week in school?

Would you believe I traded in my servants for something called mother, father, sister and brother?

Would you believe I traded in my jewels and grounds for season tickets, gas money, sectional pins, class pictures and fees?

Well, would you believe I lie a little?

Three Coins In a Fountain

This year the Junior Prom with the theme of "Three Coins in a Fountain" will be held Saturday May 21 from 9 P.M. to 12 P.M., at the First Methodist Social Hall. Eddie Jarrett and his orchestra will provide the music for dancing.

For the class of '67 this night will be one that they will always remember. The various committees have been doing everything in their power to make it a success.

Without the efforts of the committees and their chairmen the prom would just be a dream and not the reality that it is now. Chris Ciula heads the list of committees as general chairman; Sue Wayo and Becky Pacay head the decoration committee; Judy King-publicity; Linda Barker and Pat Nadjik-tickets; Mary Ann Sikorski and Pat Nadjik-court; and Barb Anderson and Linda Myers-food.

American Field Service Dinner

The American Field Service Dinner sponsored by the P.T.A. and Foreign Exchange Club, honored the Foreign Exchange students.

At this dinner the students gave their impressions of the United States and told about their country and home in response to questions which were asked by Washington seniors. Mr. Kermit Thompson and Mrs. Jackie White, sponsor of the Washington Foreign Exchange Club, helped arrange the evening of questions.

The foreign exchange students who attended were: Adams — Anne Notley from New Zealand; Central—Paula Siganevich from Argentina; Clay — Hilda Oelrich from South Africa; Mishawaka — Chryssanthie Castanaki from Greece; Riley — Vicenti Ricardo Coello from Ecuador; Washington — Anick Longuet from France, and Eduardo DeMoura from Brazil.

Hooray, hooray it's the 18th of May—School let's out three weeks from today. E. N.

COMING . . . SENIOR ISSUE ON MAY 27!

Here is my will. You willed me your locker, how nice. There is the favorite couple of our class. I remember that picture.

These are the sounds which will be heard on May 27th when the Hatchet staff will sell the 1966 Senior issue. Read about the activities of the class, senior class trip, class trip pictures and the family baby album. Don't miss it.

Seniors!

It's almost ended—the senior prom, senior skit and the senior graduation which will end the class of 1966 at Washington High School. The tears of sorrow and joy will enter each senior's eyes when the band plays "Pomps and Circumstances" as the class of '66 marches on the load into the future. The friendships will be truer at that moment and then everyone will depart for home. At last our freshman dream will come true and everything will just be a remembrance of the past. The present is still here though; we still are seniors until the last and final moment when we receive our diploma on June 8th.

Two W.H.S. Artists Win Scholarships

By THERESA GRODZICKI

Ray Lowman and Richard Marks Jr., W. H. S. seniors, have won scholarships to further their education in the field of art. They won these scholarships in the annual National Scholastic Art Awards competition.

In order to be eligible for the scholarships, each submitted portfolios containing 8-12 works, three of which had to be drawings. Their grades as well as their drawing ability were taken into consideration when determining the winners.

$100 Hallmark

Ray Lowman's scholarship is for the Ft. Wayne Art School. He also won a $100 Hallmark prize for his painting of a city scape in semi-abstract. This was the best work to come out of the regional competition. Forty Hallmark awards were given throughout the nation. Mr. Pilarski said Ray is the most skillful student he has had in a long time. After college Ray might become an illustrator.

Award For Sculpture

Richard Mark's scholarship is to Herron School of Art in Indianapolis. He also received a medalist award for a sculpture.

Four Honorable Mentions

Washington also received four honorable mentions. They went to Richard Emerick, James Fozo, Mark Shubert, and Rhea Ann Steinger.

Cash Awarded to Teacher

Mr. Marion Pilarski, a W.H.S. teacher, received a cash award at the Northern Indiana Art Salon Patrons Association exhibitions in Hammond.

The regional competition took place at Robertson's Department Store where 2,000 works were submitted and 16 counties represented.

Since this type of competition began, Washington has been on top. Congratulations to the winners and we hope Washington always retains its high fame, for the art department has represented our school well!

CITIZENSHIP GRADES COUNT

After receiving the latest report card, many students are surprised to notice that their subject and citizenship grades are quite low. The following list may hold the answer.

- I. Get off to a bad start.
 - A. Pay no attention to the teacher; act as if you are bored.
 - B. Be sure to let the teacher know how unimportant you think the subject is.

- II. Follow up your beginning by antagonizing the teacher.
 - A. Do as little of the assignment as possible.

1. Don't read any of the assigned pages if you can avoid them.
2. Read comic books in class, making sure the teacher notices.
3. Keep away from the library as if it were an isolation ward.

- B. Be unco-operative during recitation.
 1. Mispronounce every word you can.
 2. Interrupt others while they are talking.

- III. Display ignorance in your written work.
 1. Turn in assignments on scratch paper.
 2. Never spell a word right when you can misspell it.
 3. Never use a dictionary to check the meaning of a doubtful word.
 4. Always hand in written assignments several days late.

- IV. If there is still doubt towards the end of the term, take further steps to insure your being reclassified.
 - A. Step up your use of nonstandard behavior.
 - B. If all else fails, be dismissed permanently from the class.

check. They were as follows; off Western in front of Washington; in Marycrest Shopping Center, and on May 7 in Town and Country Shopping Center.

At the safety checks prizes were given at random to people whose cars were checked. At the Town and Country Shopping Center about 1,55 prizes were given out. Some of these were shampoo sets, gift certificates and tickets for gas.

The check lanes were open from about 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. except for Marycrest lanes which opened at 4 p. m.

DO YOU WATCH BATMAN?

SOPHOMORES ARE PRODUCING GREATEST LITERARY MAGAZINE OF THE YEAR!

At the present time, under our very noses, one of the greatest literary works of the year is being produced! In only one or two weeks, crowds will be clamoring for it. Hospitals will be filled to overflowing with cases of students in agony after being caught in this on rush. Wouldn't you like to be one of the lucky ones to have your own copy?

Well, be patient! The magazine is only in the planning stages. Sophomores of Mrs. Ann Bingaman's 4th hour English class are full of energy for promoting the on coming event. Those in a particularly frantic rush are the members of the planning committee. They are: Diane Wisniewski, Joyce Opaczewski, Nancy Laisnez, Joseph Konopka, and Russell Brant.

A host of appropriate titles—which appear odd, but catchy—is being pondered by the entire class. You're bound to hear about the magazine sooner or later; and when you do, you won't be able to wait! Watch for more news on this subject. The proceeds will go toward the sole cause of making a few needy teenagers happy.

PERSONALITY IN SPOTLIGHT

Last issue's athlete of the week was Rick Tomaszewski and in this issue he is the featured personality.

Rick went to grade school at Saint Adalbert's and has been at Washington since his freshman year.

Considering the fact that he wants to take a major in communications at Indiana University South Bend-Mishawaka campus, he has taken majors in high school in English and social studies.

Rick hasn't set any records yet for the track team here, but he keeps up the hard work. To the incoming track men and the ones who are coming back next year he would like to say that it just takes a lot of will power and determination, but he is sure they can make it.

Class Rings Distributed on May 12!

On May 12 the majority of the junior class received their class rings. Those who did not order rings this year will have to wait until next year or order them from a jewelry store.

Y-TEENS PRESENT 'FASHIONS IN BLOOM'

The Washington High School Y-Teens presented their annual style show on Saturday, April 16, at 2:30 in the afternoon. Featured was a collection of the latest spring fashions ranging from granny gowns to bikinis. "Fashions In Bloom" was held in the Frances Shop Auditorium.

Members of both the Y-Teens and the Hi-Y modeled for the show. Y-Teen models were Barb Basham, Kathy Budny, Chris Ciula, Patti Easterday, Gail Eickstadt, Pam Grove, and Cheryl Hitson. Other models were Cindy Howard, Paula Isbell, Diane Kehoe, Linda Petitgoue, Debbie Sensig, Sue Wayo, and Shelli Williamson. Some of these girls modeled sleepwear and swimsuits, while others modeled sportswear and formals. Mrs. John Hintz, sponsor of the Washington Y-Teens, also modeled three outfits for day and evening wear. Representing the Hi-Y, Tim Cenova, Tom Dyszkiewicz, and Craig Mankowski wore fashions from the men's department.

Nancy Plumbeck, general chairman of "Fashions In Bloom," was also the narrator. Chairmen of the various other committees were Models—Cindy Fenimore and Sue Wayo; Hostesses—Janet Skorpinski; Refreshments—Cathy Freeman; Publicity—Barb Hudson; Program—Linda Ziolkowski; Tickets—Becky Pacay.

West Side's Answer to Top Combos

The Chessmen consist of six talented young men. John Swoveland, senior at Niles High School plays bass; Chuck Potthast from St. Joe High plays rhythm and sings; John Potthast from LaSalle plays the lead and also sings. Tim Link a new member and lead singer is from Washington High. Also Gary "Magoo" McGowan and Ed "Rinko" Rinker, leader of the band, is their drummer.

Mike Douhitt is manager of the swinging "Chessmen". The Chessmen are the West Side's answer to the top bands in town.

The Chessmen have been together for seven months and now have found their way in the music world. The song that is mostly requested is "Wava" to the tune of "Hang On Sloopy".

On May 20 the Chessmen will compete against the Teen Tones in a battle of the bands here in the Washington gym. Don't miss.—THE BATTLE!

Wally Brings The House Down!

Everyone who attended "Teahouse of the August Moon" saw Wally make his first theatrical appearance.

Wally's home is Potawatomi Park. Of course, Wally is a goat. Tuesday before the play Jim Hicks, who also gave Wally his name, went over to Potawatomi to pick up the goat. After the special star arrived here at W.H.S. it was agreed that the cast would take turns keeping Wally at their homes. Toni Czarnecki was to keep Wally on Tuesday and Wednesday. Toni said Wally was a doll and very little trouble. She fed him milk and a little lettuce. The only problem was Wally did not like to sleep alone. On Tuesday Toni slept in her basement on a lawn chair until Wally gained confidence and was content to sleep alone.

Poodle Problems

On Thursday, after rehearsals, Jackie Brandt took Wally to her house. Everything was fine, except, Jackie's French Poodle did not think Wally was as cute as everyone else did. By seven o'clock that evening Wally was back at Toni's house where he stayed until Monday.

Wally Makes Friends

Mr. Kenneth Jacks was Wally's babysitter on Friday and Saturday nights, seeing that he was on stage on cue. During the play, Wally, a very affectionate kid, bestowed his affection on many members of the cast. He enjoyed chewing the sleeves on their clothes and in washing Dale Balsbaugh's face.

Monday morning Bob Molenda took Wally back to Potawatomi Park. Toni said she misses Wally already and plans to go to the park this summer to visit her friend. As a precaution, Toni put a dent in Wally's collar to be sure of finding him in his park home.

Fellowship Promoted At Rotary Meetings

By DEBBIE DABROWIAK

The other day I was talking to Steve Gable and he told me that he has been attending the Rotary International Club's luncheon meeting at the Pick-Oliver Hotel. These are held on every Wednesday from noon until 1:30 in the afternoon. Steve went from November until January. Steve was not the only Washington student to attend these meetings. There were three others: Colin Pence, Edvarde de Moura, and George Nicholas. They all attended these meetings at different times of the year, for a period of eight weeks.

The main purpose of the Rotary is to promote spirit of fellowship between the Rotary and the students of the area high schools. The Rotary is interested in young men who are interested in becoming business men of tomorrow's world.

Mr. Kermit Thompson, Mr. Frank Ernst, and Mr. Leonard Janowiak chose those who were to attend the meetings.

Voice of the Panther

Senior-itis?

It seems like the only thing the teachers tell us any more is how lazy we seniors are. True, many seniors are lazy, but there are many who are not. Many of those who don't have a severe case of senioritis do have a symptom of it. This symptom is tiredness, due to a year of hard work and homework. Nobody praises these people even though they're working as hard as ever. Instead, the teachers are piling on more homework and are being more rigid in their demands. In addition to this they continue to tell us how lazy we are. The lazy people don't give a darn anyways and all the preaching is going to do them no good. The ambitious ones are the ones who care, but they are worn out and the extra "sermons" and work certainly are not exactly encouraging.

Worked and Worn-out, Dear Worked and Worn-out,

It is like this every year. Do your best and remember that the greater the effort is now, the greater the reward will be later.

NINE TRYOUT AS CHEERLEADERS

For the past several weeks, Miss Doris Moran has been holding cheerleader workshop for girls interested in trying out for next year's varsity football cheerleaders.

After two cuts there are nine semi-finalists. The nine girls are Debbie Barzo, Cathy Bonkowski, Mary Ann Piatkowski, Debbie Sensig, Renee Van Slager, Diane Wisniewski, Bonnie Zultanski, Marcia Craycraft, and Diane Heyse.

Congratulations to the winners and thanks to the girls who tried out!

Boo-hoo.
"Jinx, what are you crying about?"

"Oh! Dinx it's that time of year again when the seniors will be saying their final good-byes to Washington."

"Boo-hoo, sniff sniff."

"Jinx, I know what we can do. Let's look through our steady name list since the class of '66 were freshmen."

"Ok Dinx."

"Let's see, Freshman year '45, '56, '59, '60, here it is, 1962. The class that entered with 800 students."

"Look here Jinx, I see Rose Ann W. and Pat Kirk were just beginning to appear in our 'lover's lane' book."

"Others that year were Valerie Toth and Larry Kase (Riley) and Linda Petterson and Dave Fields (Grad)."

Times have changed.

Now the seniors that have been going together are:

Bob Molenda and Nancy Kobylarek, Lenna Beaton and Frank Skubis (65), Dave Chmielewski and Pam Hardy, Carol Anderson and Bob Majewski, Cindy Jackowiak and Don Nowicki, Loretta Long and Walt Pellow (65), Barry (Calif.) and Pat McCue, Terry Lein (Ball State) and Pam Grove Doug Smith and Pam Lindorf.

"Boo-hoo."

"Oh Jinx, I'm going to join you because I sure am going to miss the class of '66."

"Oh! Dinx, don't forget to get your Senior issue of the Hatchet on May 27."

STUDENT COUNCIL EXCHANGE PROGRAM

During the past week the Student Council of the schools in South Bend has sent representatives to all the schools. Each student attended the classes of his Student Council host. Many visitors to our school were impressed by the size of our school and the great number of students crowding our halls. We had students from St. Mary's, Central, Jackson, LaSalle, and Clay. We also sent students to other schools.

PANTHER BREAKS 100-YARD DASH MARK

Bob Gordes of Riley was the sensation of the Northern Indiana Track Conference meet at Mishawaka's Tupper Field. Elkhart High School got control again of the team championship and records were knocked all over the field a week ago last Saturday.

Gordes exceeded 14 feet for the third time this season as he put Indiana's best at 14 feet 3 1/2 inches. This is an inch and a quarter better than his own outdoor mark.

The meet's oldest record was broken by Washington's Earl Hairston in the 100 yard dash, timed at 9.9 seconds. It knocked off the 10 flat time first set by Central's Jim Coleman in 1952 and tied by another Central runner, Melvin Ross, in 1958.

Two other records fell and another was tied, Elkhart's Tim Hill pushed the shot put 57 feet 6 inches for meet and field record. Elkhart's mile relay team accounted for the other.

Our Lucius Turner matched the 1958 record of 22.1 seconds which was set by Central's Melvin Ross in the 220 yard dash.

Two bad breaks hurt our runners in the meets. Our half mile relay team which held a lead over Riley tripped on an exchange and the team fell to last, but we did bring in the fifth place on the last lap.

Our new hurdler, Russell White, a consistent winner all spring, tripped over a hurdle in 180 yard trials and therefore did not qualify for the finals.

QUESTION: WHAT DO YOU CALL A 300 LBS MAN WITH A SWITCH-BLADE?
ANSWER: "SIR!"

DOUG'S SPORT CHAT

We've got very little to say today but we would like to send our sincere congratulations to the track team under the leadership of two fine coaches, Head Coach Mr. Robert VanCamp and his assistant coach, Mr. Patrick Gullifer. We are sure that the rest of Washington's students and the faculty congratulate the team for their fine performance last Saturday. We might also add here that they have been holding their ground in other meets throughout the city and here on our track. We did notice at one of the meets that many people were out there to cheer our boys on; may this continue for the remainder of the season.

Baseball

The team seems to be holding its own under Head Coach Mr. Lowecki and his assistant Mr. Nowicki. If you ever watch the team practice after school you can see some of the best sluggers in the city. Once a boy swung so hard I couldn't see where the ball went because I thought it was against the sun but unfortunately it was in the catcher's mitt or rather it went through the catcher's mitt. Better luck next time, fellas.

Golf

Besides a lot of golf clubs being toted into school in the morning I see a lot of sunburns and now gradually some tan. This sport isn't such a bad thing to do-to get in shape for the beach this summer if not now. (On Saturdays and Sundays, of course, none of this weekday stuff.)

ATTENTION BOYS! BOOSTER CLUB GIRLS ARE IN SEARCH OF PROSPECTS

On May 18, all students interested in joining the Booster Club should attend the election of officers for 1966-1967. The Booster Club needs boys, and all boys are invited. Previously it was a girl's club, but most of the area high schools have found that boys have made very good members and now hold many offices. Boys also have done a terrific job in promoting school spirit.

There are 5 offices to be filled; president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and publicity chairman (in place of social chairman) who is in charge of publicizing athletic events.

At many schools it is taken for granted that all seniors are a part of the Booster Club. It would be nice if next year's senior class could start a tradition like this at Washington.

The main purpose of the club is to "promote a genuine interest and enthusiasm toward all the athletic activities of Washington High School on the part of the entire student body." The Booster Club could use a boost in active members to boost the team. BE SURE TO JOIN ON MAY 18!

TRACKMEN GET 50-50 BREAK

The defending city track champs had to take a little of the bitter with the sweet last two weeks. The thinclads had a solid victory over Culver High School, but got beat by Elkhart.

In the Culver meet Fred Howard was the only double winner; he won the 100 yard dash with a good time of :10.9 and also the 220 yard dash stopping the watch at :24.2. John Farthing did well in the one mile event with a reading of 5:10.8. In the one mile event Culver took second place but our own Greg Fye took third to bring the Panther score to six points for the event. The Panthers won eight points in the 440 yd. dash; the event was led by Jim Fozo at :54.0 and John Williams with

:57.6. In the 880 yd. event we again took first and second place. First place was taken by Rick Tomaszewski at 2:13.5 and second by Bob Peterson at 2:23.

Going down a little further on the summary sheet we stop at the high jump which was led by Doug Smith ('66) who cleared a height of 5' 8", Ken Richmond over 5' 11" and John Williams 5' 6".

SHOT PUT

Charles Black, alias "Box Car Charlie," heaved the lead shot 47' 3 3/4"; Ben Locsi was just a little short of Charlie, pushing the shot put out 46' 8 3/4".

(Do you wonder why we're saving this?)

Bob Peterson led the contestant pole vaulting and Carl Evans brought up the rear clearing the bar at 9' 6".

In the half mile relay Lucius Turner caused the first stop-watch to stop and in the 2 mile event Jim Bilinski took the donors. The results of the Elkhart track meet are not as sweet as those of Culver.

The Panthers won five first places, five second places and four third places.

The first place winners were Russ White at the high hurdles with a time of :15.5, and the low hurdles with a time of :21.3. Ed Henry won the broad jump, pushing himself a distance of 22' 1/2". Ken Richmond won the high jump and Washington won the 880 relay.

SECONDS

Coming in second and scoring three points for the team were Fred Howard in the 100 yd. dash, Jim Fozo in the 440 yd. dash, Fred Howard again in the 220 yd. dash. Earl Hairston was second in the broad jump and finally Henry Daviero came in for three points on the shot put.

THIRDS

Boys that won one point for the team were Rick Tomaszewski in the 880 yd. dash, Ron Schroeder in the 180 yd. low hurdles, Doug Smith ('66) came in third in the high jump and finally Bob Peterson came in third in the pole vaulting.

HERCULES VAN CAMP??

During second hour math class Mr. Robert Van Camp decided on an impulse of Hercules to show the class how to develop their muscles using the new isometrics bar. In doing so Mr. Van Camp rigged the bar and ropes and said, "Watch me now, I will pull . . . I will pull . . . I will pull . . ." He suddenly noticed he had not eaten his Cheerios so he called Terry Dodds to assist him. Dodds gladly obliged. So Panthers if you want strength and stamina do not go to see Mr. Van Camp; he might put you on the track team.
