"If you found an Easter egg, and it broke, what would you want to come out of it?"

Carole Guzowski—Money. I need it for senior expenses.

Colette Berndt—A baby grand piano. With all these senior expenses, I'll never be able to save enough money to buy one.

Casimer Krawiec—A harem with me in the middle.

Ernie Rozanski—$30.00 for Dave Van Kirk.

Pattie Boosi—Mishawaka Basketball Team or Art!

Annette Arpasi—A big red convertible with a certain some-one sitting inside.

Richard Palmer—A million dollars.

Rose Lacay—A good football team for next year! How about that, captain???

Anonymous—A report card with all "A's".

William Forrest—Eggs!

Lila Chandonia—A very, well-known musician.

Everett Wright—A girl.

Pauline Watson—Bobbie John, naturally.

Dan Krush—Gerry Malicki. Ha! Ha!

Virginia Eckenberger—A certain junior in 205.

Bennie Wilkins—Henry Easton after he had grown another foot.

Irene Walker—My little red wagon.

Rene Van DeVelde—Something that looks like a car.

George Kovatch—A nice-looking girl. B. C.

Y.M.C.A. DIRECTOR ADDRESSES SENIORS

Mr. Elmer Wiseman, director of the Y.M.C.A., spoke to the senior social living classes on Friday, March 9, on the subject "Factors Making for a Successful Marriage." He was a very interesting speaker and covered many points on choosing one's mate. He also told members of the class about a survey taken of high school seniors and college seniors in which they were asked, "What qualities would your ideal mate have?" One important fact taken from the survey was that neither the boys nor girls thought good looks very important.

Miss Margaret Cooney, Washington school nurse, will address the classes tomorrow on the subject

Forum Plans Two Town Meetings

The South Bend Student Forum, a group of representatives from the city's high schools, held a meeting Wednesday, March 7, at St. Joseph's Academy. For the second time in the Forum's history, every school in the city was represented: South Bend Catholic, Central Catholic, St. Joseph's Academy, St. Mary's Academy, Central, Adams, Riley, and Washington.

Plans were made for two junior town meetings. The first, which is being held at Mishawaka High School today, March 15, will discuss the topic of national health. The panel members are:

Ed Leivens - Central Catholic
Carl Gunderson - Mish. High
Betty Stavropoulos - St. Mary's Academy
Eleanore Taberski - Wash. High

The second town meeting will be presented in Central High's auditorium on Wednesday, March 28. The discussion will be on some phase of labor. Those on the panel are:

Tom Slater - Riley
Rose Peters - So. Bend Catholic
Marilyn Moran - Adams
Douglas Adams - Central

The South Bend Tribune will announce the broadcast dates for these meetings.

At the meeting, Pat Kus, Washington's senior representative, was elected the presiding officer of the Student Forum. Chester Allen of Central was the former chairman.

The next meeting of the forum will be at Central on Wednesday, March 28.

"Bandmen" Rate High in Contest

The Washington High School band was honored by having twelve of its members receive "superior" or "excellent" ratings in the annual contest of bands held in Walkerton on February 17. Over 2000 Indiana high school band players participated in contests held over the state.

Winners for Washington were the trumpet trio (Robert Saltz-gaber, Lorraine Wachowiak, and Frank Taberski), "superior" rating; snare drum solo, Clarence Ezra; trumpet solo, Donald Molnar; tenor sax solo, Richard Hauguel; clarinet solo, Don Phillips; clarinet solo, Pat Wasielewski; clarinet quartet, (Don Phillips, Beth Ahlgrim, Margaret Toth, and Fides Hojara), all "excellent" ratings.

The band people were under the direction of Mr. Keith Gnagy.

BETTER WASHINGTON WEEK — APRIL 9 TO 14

Members of the Washington Student Council have been engaged for some time in plans for a "Better Washington Week," a week of concentrated effort to make this school, fine as we think it is, an even better one.

Members of a committee recently met with members of the HATCHET Staff to enlist the co-operation of the staff; and Melvin Lesiewicz, president of the Council, appeared before members of the faculty at a faculty meeting last Thursday to present the plan for its approval.

General plans for the week, which is to begin on April ninth, will be the feature of the next issue of THE HATCHET.

If you growl all day, it's only natural to feel dog-tired at night.

who attend the afternoon performance will be excused from their fourth-period class at 1:20 and will return to their sponsor rooms they will go to the auditorium at 1:25. Each home room will occupy its usual seats. Students who do not wish to attend the performance will be assigned to rooms to study by home room teachers.

"The Calendar Revue" will present music depicting the months of the year, beginning with April and ending with March. The music representing some of the months will be presented by soloists; The music of other months will be presented by ensembles. Soloists are Pat Aftowski, February; Sheila Howe, April; Sylvia Nowak, May; Colette Berndt, June; Tom Plonski, July; Marie Cholasinski, August; Dolores Etts, September; Jeanne Nagy, October; Pat Lane, December.

The revue is arranged in the form of a story concerning a man seeking talent for a show. Dan Olejniczak will play the role of the talent-seeker, with Tom Plonski acting as his assistant. Betty Wogatske will be Don's faithful secretary. Colette Berndt will preside at the piano. Marilyn Cole will play the part of a fussy prima donna. She wants to be the star of the show Dan is producing so she gets interested in his nephew, played by James Kalka.

Comedy is provided by the cleaning-women of the establishment, a squad under the direction of Pat Lane. They scrub, dance and sing! Members of this squad are, in addition to Pat, Dorothy Deguch, Rose Lacay, Mary Jane Nowak, Eleanore Taberski, Annabelle Tschida, and Sylvia Wamser.

A quartet of singing waiters will be: E. Miller, W. Robinson, J. Robinson and F. Watkins.

Another ensemble will be Dan Olejniczak, Joe Bykowski, and Tom Plonski, who will sing "Collegiate" with the chorus assisting. Nancy Badowski will dance to "Dancing in the Dark". Bathing girls will be portrayed by Marie Cholasinski, Yolanda Pap, Charleigh Wright, Donna Finch, Pat Kurtis, Irene Arelt, and Mary Ann Szczechowski.

Easter Bunnies Make Pre-Easter Visit to Historical Washington High

Who is this distinguished couple walking down the hall? Could it be . . . ? No! It's impossible, but it is . . . it's Mr. and Mrs. Easter Bunny! What are they writing down in the pink and blue book in his hand (paw, we mean)? Let's peek over their shoulder and see what it is . . .

Ah!

"A big bottle of 'Air-Wick' for the gym at noon (o-o-o-o, that odor!)"

"A bright blue Easter bonnet for Mrs. Pugin with plenty of feathers."

"A medal for George Zywert for being true to the 'Bashful Boy Club.' (Keep it up, George; maybe you'll become president of the club.)"

"A pair of red corduroy tapers for Steve Horvath, even though he isn't the most loudest (!) boy in school."

"A Bendix Washer for the boys' gym dressing room so they can occasionally wash their gym clothes."

"Some de-odorizer for room 124 to prevent the luscious odors from getting into the halls and tantalizing everyone."

"A new typewriter for the HATCHET Staff (how we need it!)"

"A free pair of nylons for each girl that ruins her hose on the rough seats in classrooms."

"Some benches in the halls for the people who must lean against the walls."

"A scholarship to a summer dancing school for Andrew DeCook."

"A $10.00-gift-certificate for Wrigley's gum for Dan Kruszewski (to help those he is always borrowing from)."

REX G. WRIGHT, assistant principal, was born in Henry County near New Castle, Indiana and graduated from the Spiceland High School. He then attended DePauw University for three winters and two summers and graduated in 1924. On the day he graduated from college he was married and then he started teaching at Middlebury High School, where he was mathematics teacher and basketball coach for four years. He became principal of Middlebury High and later of Jefferson Township in North Goshen. He came to South Bend in 1931 and taught in Central Junior High. Later he became principal of Linden and Kaley schools.

In 1943 he entered the Army to teach navigation in advanced air training. He was in the army for two years. He has done graduate work at the University of Chicago and Purdue and received a master's degree from the latter. He has two children, Bob who attends Purdue and Mary, aged five, at home.

KATHERINE WOLFE, girls' gym teacher, was born in Jasper, Missouri and attended Peoria, Illinois, High School. She was graduated from the Normal College of the A.G.U., receiving a B. P.E. degree and later received a B.S. degree from Indiana University. Her teaching career began at Elkhart High School where she taught for six years. After that, she came to Washington where she has been teaching ever since.

Track Time Is Here!

Once again, track time is up on the sports agenda at Washington. This year's squad opens its season on March 16 when they clash with the other city schools in an indoor meet which will be held at Notre Dame.

The 1951 squad has a grand total of fifty-three boys battling it out for spots on the squad. Out of these fifty-three boys, the tracksters who would grab a lot of points for the Panthers are three seniors, four juniors, and three sophomores. The seniors are Gerry Malicki, who competes in the shot-put, 220, and half mile relay; Grontkowski, who runs the 880; and Bethel, who runs in the 880; and Bethel, running in the 440.

Among the juniors we have Pete Pica, an excellent miler; Bob Hegedus, who runs the 100-yard dash, the 200-yard low hurdles and in the 880 relay; Art Lootens, who competes in the high jump and broad jump; and Albert Cashaw, who runs in the 880. Cashaw, Wands, Morris, and Bethel should prove to be outstanding in the 440-yard dash and should be a very good mile relay team. Siderits is a shot-putter who should grab points.

tenth in the national tennis rankings on two occasions and has been badminton champion three times. She was state tennis champion seven times and this year won the Herald-American's Poll as the best woman tennis player from 1900-1950 in the Chicago area.

Miss Wolfe has also played on seven state basketball teams. At present she is the national chairman for tennis in colleges. Her favorite color is green and knitting and bridge are her favorite indoor pastimes.

Two Senior Girls Capitol Bound

Christine Jenczewski and Pat Kus plan to have a good time during spring vacation. The girls will visit Washington, D. C., New York City and Lake Success with a group of South Bend high school seniors.

The group will leave South Bend at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, March 28, and travel to Plymouth by chartered bus. There they will board a train to Washington, D. C. and will arrive at 8:35 Monday morning. While in Washington they will stay at the Continental Hotel. Sights that they will see while in the capital city are the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Washington's Monument, The Old and New Museum, Mt. Vernon, Embassies and Legations, Rock Creek and Zoological Parks, Ft. Myer, Arlington Cemetery and Tomb of Unknown Soldier, Alexandria, Virginia, and back to the hotel on Monday. On Tuesday they will visit the Archives and Mellon Art Gallery, the FBI office, the United States Capitol, visit to the House of Representatives and Senate, the United States Supreme Court.

They will spend Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday in New York City. While they will take a sight seeing tour through Uptown and Downtown New York, 5th Avenue, Central Park, Riverside Drive, Grant's Tomb, Harlem, Hudson River and George Washington Bridge, Palisades, Little Church around the Corner, Brooklyn Bridge, the Bowery, Chinatown, Wall Street, and possibly a visit to the Stock Exchange. They will then board a Staten Island Ferry for a trip down the Bay to Staten Island and return seeing the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island, Governor's Island, and Lower New York Harbor. All of this has been planned for Wednesday.

Thursday they will probably see a television show or a broadcast in the morning while in the afternoon they will make a trip to the United Nations.

They plan to see the Empire State Building and visit the 102nd floor observation tower, and also a show at the Radio City Music Hall Friday morning. They will leave New York at 4:05 p.m. for Plymouth and arrive there at 6:13 a.m. Saturday morning. Special busses will bring them back to South Bend.

After hearing all of the things that have been planned for them. I think that the girls will need another week of vacation to recuperate. It sounds like fun and we'll all be anxious to hear about it when they return.

Scholarship News

Senior Offered Reading Award

One member of the senior class will be selected to receive a scholarship offered by the Foundation for Better Reading, Miss Goppert announces. The scholarship, which is also being offered to one senior is each of the other schools, will be given to a student of average or above-average ability. Preference will be given to students who are planning to enter college.

The Better Reading Foundation is a Chicago organization with a training center in South Bend. It has been organized to train average or above average readers to use more fully their capacity to read. It is estimated that most people use only a small percentage of their potential ability. A recent test, for instance, showed that 60% of the adult population of Chicago reads at the eighth grade level or below.

Statistics on the first hundred students who took the course in the South Bend center of the foundation show that they improved from 79% to 84% in comprehension and from an average of 260 words per minute to 653 words per minute.

The training is preceded by four hours of individual diagnosis of reading technique. The training is given one hour a day, five days a week, for four weeks. At the end the student receives a two-hour recheck of reading technique.

The cost of instruction for students is sixty dollars; this is the value of the scholarship. Interested students should apply at once to Miss Goppert. Applications must be in by March 30.

Two Essay Contests Offered

This spring two essay contests are open to the students of Washington High. The first of these is the contest sponsored by the local post of Veterans of Foreign Wars Ladies' Auxiliary. Students in grades from 9 through 12 are eligible. The subject is "The Open Door To Freedom" and entrants are to submit original ideas in essays not to exceed one thousand words in length. Contestants winning in South Bend will be given a $25.00 savings bond. The district winner will receive a $50.00 bond and the state winner will receive a $500.00 bond. Governor Schricker will head the state judging committee. Essays should be submitted not later than April 1.

The second contest is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of South Bend. Students in grades six, seven, eight, and nine are eligible. The subject is "It's Fun to Live In America." The purpose is to stress the importance of our free America. The prizes are one $50.00 cash prize and four $25.00 prizes, one for each grade. Prizes will be awarded at a June Kiwanis Club meeting.

Students who are interested should ask their English teachers for further details.

Y-TEENS WILL HELP CHEER SHUT-INS

As one of their service projects, the Y-Teens will make small Easter baskets and fill them with candy to brighten the trays of patients at Healthwin Hospital. The co-chairmen of the project are Eleanore Taberski and Beverly Laisure. All of the girls belonging to the Y-Teen Club will meet Mon., March 19, at the Y.W.C.A. in the afternoon to make the baskets. They will be taken to Healthwin Wednesday, March 21.

The annual Y-Teen Starlight Fantasy will be held Saturday, April 7, at the Erskine clubhouse from 9:00 to 12:00 p.m. Bud Simpson and his orchestra will play. Tickets are available to anyone in school wishing to attend.

SEVENTH GRADE ELECTS OFFICERS

The seventh grade has elected the following officers for the second semester:

President, James Overmyer; vice-president, Mary Ann Van Rassen; secretary, Elaine Goetz; treasurer and sports reporter, Ralph Pieniazkiewicz.

Social Committee: Thomas Lyn-tych, Chairman; Ralph Pieniazkiewicz, and Ronald Milewski.

All-City Music Festival Held

The Fourth Annual Instrumental Festival was held on March 6 and 8 at 8:00 p.m. in the John Adams Auditorium. Taking part in the festival besides Adams, Central, Riley, and Washington high schools were the junior high schools and elementary schools from all over South Bend.

On Tuesday the program consisted of elementary string classes under the direction of Miss Shuman, Miss Briggs, and Mr. Ellsworth; junior high school bands under Mr. Gnagy, Mr. Singleton, and Mr. Richardson; and the combined senior high school orchestras under the leadership of Mr. Edwyn Hames, guest conductor or the day. Mr. Hames, who teaches at Hillsdale College, is conductor of the South Bend Symphony Orchestra.

On Thursday the program was elementary band classes under the direction of Mr. Richardson, Mr. Singleton, and Mr. Gnagy; junior high school string orchestra directed by Miss Schuman, Miss Briggs, and Mr. Ellsworth; and the combined senior high school bands under Mr. Claude Smith, guest conductor for that day.

There were more than one thousand music students participating in the days' events. The "Washington district", Washington, Oliver, and Harrison, was represented by 117 students.

Spring Fashions

SPRING! — when boys feel GALant and girls feel BOuYant! SPRING! — when a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love, and a young girl's fancy turns to thoughts of—spring fashion and Easter bonnets (?) Even though the March winds whistle through the air, a girl, shopping for an Easter outfit, certainly has every right to believe that "Spring is just around the corner."

This year spring fashions have been forecasted as the most colorful ever. Navy, again, will dominate as the basic color, but beige will give the classic navy close competition. As an alternative, gray will be important in the neutral department. For accents, the pink to mauve family has taken over. Variations of red, green, blue, yellow, orange, etc. will come in for their share of glory. Thus far, yellow leads in novelty colors.

In styles, suits are softer, having slightly arched hips and defined waists. Much of the "football shoulder padding" has been removed to allow for a more feminine look. The "duster" of the early '20's has returned and has taken an important place in the fashion picture.

Year after year fabrics are becoming more breathtakingly beautiful. Silk prints and shantung, real Irish linen, lace, soft English wools, Swiss cottons, and our own American wools, nylons, and rayons are setting the style trend.

Hosiery will be lighter in shade to harmonize with the new color combinations.

Shoes will be "down right pretty" this spring. Calf, kid, suede, mesh, and patent leather will be made into pumps, and strapped sandals of all types

Easter bonnets, this year as every year, will top off that wonderful Easter outfit. Straws will dominate in the chapeau department. Straws-smooth woven, lacy, and crisp-combed with taffeta, heaps of veiling, and flowers galore will indeed give everyone that feeling of Spring—when boys are GALant and

PLATTER PATTY SEZ

It's Easter time again and all this Easter music makes me look forward to it even more. Of course, Sammy Kaye is back with his version of "Easter Parade" and Mervin Shiner is hop-hopping around with his version of "Peter Cottontail". On the more serious side is Bing Crosby and his beautiful version of "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You." "Aba Daba Honeymoon" by Richard Hayes and Kitty Kallen, and "A Penny a Kiss, a Penny a Hug" by Eddy Howard are two, swell new additions to the juke-box novelty department. Guy Mitchell, assisted by Mitch Miller and the orchestra, is certainly assuring rapid rise to success with his latest record, "Christopher Columbus." It is backed by a cute ditty "Sparrow in a Tree Top."

Mel Torme's latest release is an oldie titled "Lullaby of the Leaves." It is backed by another oldie, "Skylark". Frank Sinatra's rendition of "I Am Loved" should put the old crooner right back on top. A brand new ballad titled "Beautiful Madness", as done up by Tony Bennet, should soon be hitting the Hit Parade; and if you're the geographic type, I'm sure you'll just l-o-v-e Dinah Shore's description of "Nashville, Tennessee."

Nat King Cole has done it again. I'm talking about his new release, "Jet". It's a song I'm sure it won't be easy to forget. Speaking of forgetting, I'd better not forget to wish you all a Happy Easter. See you after vacation—Bye all!

Gilkey Holds All-Time WHS Record

Bill Gilkey, the Panther's 1950-51 captain, has the Washington High all-time record for a three-year point total in basketball, the final count on points shows. Bill also has captured the NIHSC record for points this year. In his sophomore year Gilkey scored 68 points, which was not bad for a sophomore. Then last year he lead the team with 259 points, followed closely by Bob Ogorek. This year was definitely his year. He scored 350 points. The following table shows his three year record:

Field Goals Free Throws Tts.

Year	Made	%	Made	%
48-49	30	.229	8	.276	68

WHICH GAME DID YOU PREFER?

Now that the season is over, as players think back over it, one game is sure to stand out in their memories as THE game. The Hatchet thought you might like to know how they remember them and a reporter undertook to find out. HOW do they remember them? Listen:

"What was your most thrilling game?"

"Mishawaka, because all the guys played hard until the final gun," said Bennie Wilkins. "Washington-Clay. All the players played a wonderful game and through this team-work we defeated the great Don Schlundt," said Floyd Smith.

"Mishawaka, because I wanted to win more than I wanted to live," Robertson thinks. "Niles, because that's the game I played most in — three quarters," Marvin Bethel said.

"Fort Wayne, because it's the first chance I had to play and didn't mess it up!" Subby felt. And Brazier? He had NO COMMENT.

"Goshen. Because the last three minutes I played helped to win over Goshen by three points," Baby Doll said. L. E.
