Juniors Have Fun at Class Party

"Fall Fantasy" was the theme of the Junior Class Party which was held on November 16, in the school gymnasium. The gym was decorated with corn stalks, pumpkins and other fall trimmings. A "harvest moon," artfully arranged in a corner of the upper deck, added to the atmosphere of the affair.

Juniors and their guests enjoyed dancing to the music of the "Bounty-men" on one deck while cookies and punch were served on the other. Several sophomore girls served. They were Karen Piller, Nancy Kobylarek, Sue Tidey, Delphine Trzaskowski, and Cindy Tomaszewski.

The juniors can proudly say that their class party was a great success. Some of the couples attending were: Becky Hagquist and Jim Molnar, Donna Thompson and Punky Hurley, Ruth Ann Gruber and Jim Coleman, John Pacay and Carol Gillen, Kathy Johnson and Terry Dale, Tom Magee and Marikka Rypa, Paul Harrel and Janice Miller, John Lukaszewski and Sharon Bartok, John Caurens and Kathy Kubiak, Carol Zultanski and Bill Ingle, Jim Fisher and Jo Crotty, Peggy Shuttrow and Tom Tobolski.

SOPHOMORES ELECT CLASS OFFICERS

In the past, as you have walked through the halls, you have probably noticed several posters clinging to the walls and lots of students wearing campaign signs. This is just a familiar way of letting everyone know that elections are under way.

The sophomore class sponsor, Mr. Janowiak, took charge of the elections in order to get the class started on some worthwhile projects and to get the ball rolling.

A primary election was held November 8, with one person from each of the 15 homerooms running for an office. The list was narrowed down to three candidates per office.

The final election, which was held Tuesday, November 19, was speeded up by the use of a voting machine. The following people were elected to office: President-Mike Klaybor; Vice-President-Lenna Beaton; Sec'y-Treas.-Nancy Plumbeck; Historian-Pam Grove, and Social Chairman-Penny Widell.

Ex Grid Great Speaks at Banquet

Athletic Banquet Held

On November 13, 1963 a Fall Banquet was held honoring Washington athletes of the varsity football squad, freshmen football squad, and the cross country team. It was held at St. Casimir's Hall and started at 6:30 P.M. It began with a chicken dinner and all the trimmings cooked by Mrs. Janicki.

Next, the speakers were introduced by Joseph Redling, athletic director. The speakers were: Mr. McNamara, Gary Wegenke, cross country coach, Tom Roggeman, head football coach. The guest speaker was Ernie Zalejski, an alumnus of Washington High. He played football at W.H.S. for 3 years and scored over 300 points during this time. Mr. Zalejski is generally recognized as the greatest football player produced at Washington.

Tim Paczkowski was announced as the most valuable football player at Washington.

OPEN HOUSE AT WASHINGTON

Tuesday evening, November 19, 1963, Washington High School held its annual Open House. A new method was used this year. There were four different programs held, one for each grade level. Each program was presented by teachers who teach the more common subjects for that grade level. This method was used so as to cover the subjects taught more thoroughly and to eliminate personal questions between teachers and parents.

The program proved to be successful.

PRODUCTS OF AN AGE OF VIOLENCE

"The President is dead."

The news of John Fitzgerald Kennedy's death was announced to the world on November 22, 1963. His death by an assassin's bullet was a shock to millions of people here in our own country and throughout the world.

At first, it was unbelievable, shocking, and numbing. People were saying to themselves, "This is 1963, a thing like that just couldn't happen." Well, it did happen and it left most of the nation and the world stunned and speechless. Within 48 hours, this numbness had changed into a dignified, somber sorrow. His death was a great loss to his family, to the nation, and to the whole world.

We are now living in an age of space rockets, push-button machines and appliances, enormous trade and industry, mass-production, and super markets, yet in our newspapers we read of an act typical of the Stone Age — man killing man. If this sin against society is still prominent, how advanced are we as human beings, as brothers, and as God's children?

Who is to blame for this horrible act? Could it be a young man, who was shot and killed by another member of society, killed while under government protection and before he had been tried in a court of law? Could it be a group, committee, or organization that wanted to throw our nation into a panic? Could it be every human being who had ever harbored any hatred for the President? Or could it be you and me, who have contributed through crime, corruption, rioting, hatred, revenge, and even murder in making the age we live in one of violence and unrest?

Who is to blame is not important, now. It will be taken care of by One who is much more just than any of our courts of law. The important thing is that this never repeats itself. Every human being, every United States citizen, both adults and children, every faculty member and students of WHS should pray to God that a horrible act, such as the one of November 22, 1963, is never repeated. We all must join together and see to it that future generations are never sunned by such actions.

STUDENTS DISPLAY POOR MANNERS ON BUS

Have you ever taken the city bus after school? If you haven't you are one of the lucky ones and if you have you probably know by now what this article will be about. I'm sure every one is tired and in a hurry to get home after school but there is no excuse for forgetting our manners at this time. On a crowded bus no one is in a comfortable position and then to be kicked or pushed out of the way is uncalled for. There is no need for all this immature acting especially among high school students. A simple word like "excuse me" will be more effective than just pushing your way through, like an animal, to the door. The boys especially don't have to prove how strong and big they are. If every one would only remember, not only on the bus, but everywhere the golden rule: "Do unto others as you would like done unto you," we would have a better understanding of others.

BASKETBALL TEAM SHAPES UP WELL

This year's basketball team should improve over last year's 13-10 mark because of our showing in last years sectionals, and rewinning players. The varsity consists of six boys, who saw varsity action last year, plus several graduates from last year's 18-2 B-team champions.

Subby Nowicki is in his 6th season of coaching, and this rates as one of his best teams. Injuries, which plagued the team earlier, seem to be under control now.

Ben Lindsey, last year's leading scorer will start at center. George Johnson, another letterman, will be at one forward. He is a 6'2" Junior. Our lineup will feature two twins, Lloyd and Floyd Kerr. They are both 6'2". Lloyd, will be at forward, and Floyd

"Well, Jinx, I thought things would never liven up after Chris Jamrock's party. Gee, that sure was a wild night!"

"Yeah, Dinx, but the bus trip to Goshen kept things lively for awhile. I never realized the Seniors at Washington have so much talent—comic and vocal ability. Mr. Hibbs and Mr. Hoffman enjoyed themselves too, as chaperones. But they sure did keep a close watch on that thermos!"

"Yes, that really was lots of fun. I'm glad St. Peter gave us week-end passes. I sure wouldn't want to have missed that."

"You know, Dinx, things have really quieted down since the two performances of 'Lost Horizons.'"

"It's too bad you had to miss it, Jinx. I really enjoyed it and Mr. Toth should be commended for a fine job of directing."

From what I've heard, Becky and Jim had swingin' parties afterwards."

Speaking of parties, the Senior party was pretty swingin' too. Poor Barb and Cindy, though. Jim and Keith were kinda' mad at the girls. Wonder why?"

"Now let's get down to business, Dinx. I heard Jack Brown is not going along with Washington tradition. He seems to have a loyal feeling for Central gals—namely Ann Hagey."

"I've been noticing Carol Grodzicki and Ken Horvath making the rounds together lately."

"Shelli Williamson has really become popular. I know at least three guys (M.H., J.P., D.D.) who would like to get to know her a little better."

"Jinx, you'll never believe what I saw the other night. Laura J. and Eileen Q. were sneaking around Pat Kush's house pretty late Saturday. Every time the girls knocked, the lights inside went off. Laura met with an accident but they really scared those guys. LeRoy even had a weapon ready!"

"The Juniors had their party not long ago, Jinx. I dropped in long enough to spot these couples—Connie Jackson and Dave Davis, Diane DeWells and Jim Buda, Linda

Hatchet Enters Contest of Health Project

This year, the Washington High School Hatchet is participating in the Annual School Press Project, sponsored by the Columbia County Tuberculosis and Health Association. Subjects include tuberculosis, health careers, and respiratory diseases. These subjects may be developed through news and feature stories, editorials, cartoons, and other active research.

These articles will be judged according to factual accuracy, understanding of subject matter, evidence of research, readability, and journalistic approach. Entries are submitted to the Indiana TB Association where they are screened, and nine entries are sent to the National Association for final judging. Papers must reach the TB League on or before the deadline of January 13, 1964.

Certificates of honor are awarded to a publication for total effort of its staff.

VanParis and Jim Laskowski, Shelli Williamson and Dennis DeBuysser, Virginia Compton and Larry Gillen, Barb Mellar and Craig Dunman, Sandy Scott and Dennis Banicki, Dawn Czarnecki and Ken Lucky, Marcia Moody and Paul Engle, and Cheryl Wagner and Dave Davens.

"Nancy Kobylarek and Bob Molenda just celebrated an anniversary, Jinx. They've been going together for all of three months."

"The Benninghoff twins have caught themselves a couple of Senior guys. Jean is going steady with Pat Kush and Janet is steadily dating Paul Gerbasich."

"Vicki Chwalek has got her eye out for a sophomore (M.L.) and a junior (J.D.). Watch out, guys—she's got that look in her eyes!"

"Dinx, Mr. Lawecky really gives his third hour class a hard time. Poor Patty and Dean never have any privacy—the 'teach' tells all!"

"Miss Jacobson's fourth hour English class is sending a plea to Sophie Yiannou, Washington's 1961 foreign exchange student, to pull them from the depths of their despair, while studying Greek Mythology."

"Judy King has an avid interest in a boy from Lydick.

What's his name, Judy?"

"Karen, your feet looked dainty as a mac truck in those green suede shoes. Aren't you glad its all over?"

"Some new couples I've seen around are—Mary Weirsham and Bob Krempec, Cindy King and Dave Leeper, Mary Ann Krol and Ron Osowski, Mary Pilarski and Paul Smogor, and Maria Breddey and John Miller. Of course, the old faithfuls are around too, like Donna Plencner and Mike Hannigan, Linda Sumpter and Jim Dinges, Darlene Czarnecki and Nick Morrence, and Sue Tidey and Dave Kaczorowski."

"Well, I suppose we should be getting back to our work, Dinx. I've got lots of harps to tune before the big parade, tonite."

"One last thing, Jinx. I went to a dance a couple of weeks ago and saw the strangest thing. A girl was dancing all by herself with a coat and scarf on. And you know, the funny thing about it—she looked like Ed Thomas!"

"Poor Dinx. St. Peter must be working you too hard. Now take it slow and we'll start for home right now. Say good-bye to all the kids."

"Good-bye to all the kids!"
