Katy Williams Football Queen

Riley and Washington met again for fun and friendship last Friday night here at the W.H.S. gymnasium.

The highlight of the evening was, of course, the crowning of Katy Williams as the Panther Football Queen. Katy was accompanied to School Field by a crowd of proud W. H. S. students Saturday night. During halftime, she exchanged the traditional red roses with the queen of Riley's football team. She was escorted by Paul Orban.

Royal Court of Seven.

Her royal court consisted of Sue Stafford escorted by Ronnie Heike, Marcia Moody escorted by John Baumgartner, Sharon Dygalski escorted by Ted Cassera, Linda Sumpter escorted by Jim Laszkowski, Diane Dewells, escorted by Jeff Balough, Nancy Wiatrolak escorted by Mike Van Slager, and Kathy Woodruff escorted by Dean Olson.

A mock football game, written by Mr. F. D. Claus' sixth hour journalism class, was presented by the students at the round-up. This added a humorous touch to the fast-moving events of the evening.

FILM, SPEAKERS, HIGHLIGHT PROGRAM

The program of Junior Achievement was presented to the juniors and seniors at a recent assembly. Suann Zwierzynski and Jack Brown gave speeches telling about J.A. and their past experiences in it.

Junior Achievement gives interested students an opportunity to explore the world of business and free enterprise on a small scale. Each J.A. company is sponsored by an interested big business in this area. The students take active part in the three main areas of business: management, production and sales.

Vocal Groups Serve Area

Mr. John FitzHenry, director of the Glee Club, has chosen twelve girls and sixteen boys to represent the Washington High School Glee Club as Melloettes and Mellomen. The Melloettes are first sopranos: Valerie Toth, Earlene McDonald, Gloria Soliday, and Connie Ghearing; second sopranos: Gnger Compton, Pat Hansell, Pat Flannigan, and Karen Kiemnec; altos: Linda VanParis, Gloria Davis, Kathy Woodruff, and Mary Sconiers. The Mellomen are first tenors: Jon Davis, Mitchell Davis, Phil Pliai, and George Hayes; second tenors: John McCoy, Bob Johnson, Rick Krueger, and Chris Gardner; bases: Lewis

GOP NOMINEE ARRIVES IN SOUTH BEND

When Republican Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona arrived in South Bend during his campaign tour of northern Indiana, the HATCHET staff sent two on-the-scene student photographers to the St. Joseph County Airport for pictorial news coverage of the event.

Seniors Jim Hildebrand and Mike McFarlane got several candid news shots of the republican presidential nominee

Last spring, Jim also photographed the arrival of President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson at South Bend's Lulu V. Cline School.

Jacobs, Ron Vincent, Randy Mahnesmith, and Pat Holbert; baritones: Tim Link, Doug Copelin, Dwaine Mayle, and Jim Stevens.

Asked to Entertain.

The Melloettes and Mellomen have been invited to sing at various churches, and the Melloettes have been asked to provide entertainment for the St. Joseph Hospital Luncheon Program in the spring. The Glee Club is also planning to present its annual Christmas program.

Courtroom Cast Answers Jury Duty

One of the many traditions at W.H.S. is the annual production of a fall play. This year's presentation is entitled "The Night of January 16th." It is an exciting comedy-drama in which the school's auditorium will be transformed into a realistic courtroom. The plot concerns a young secretary who is accused of murdering her employer and how her clever lawyer tries to prove her innocent. John W. Toth, head of the drama department, asserts that the denouement of the play will be surprising both to the audience and to the actor.

The play will be presented on November 5 and 6, and tickets will be available soon. The cast includes the following students:

Say you saw it in THE HATCHET

School and hopes that they enjoy their own foreign correspondent from Ontario.

Canadian Student to Write for Hatchet

The Washington High School staff hopes to make this year's Hatchet more exciting and more interesting than ever before. Though the Hatchet usually consists of articles written exclusively by its own students, one of the new surprises in store now will be a reporter from our neighbor country, Canada.

Our "foreign" reporter's name is James Lewis who is a senior at Central High School in Hamilton, Ontario. He also is a writer on his school paper and is very anxious to exchange ideas with us. His articles will discuss:

1. What a Canadian school is like.
2. The difference between American and Canadian schools.
3. The cost of education in Canada.
4. A story on structure and appearance of the largest high school on one campus in North America. (which happens to be Jim Lewis' own high school).

The new Hatchet staff aims to please the 1964 student body of Washington High

National Newspaper Week

National Newspaper Week, October 11-17, emphasizes the influence that newspapers have in the world today. Newspapers make sure that the citizens know about the activities of the government, that everyone can voice his opinion on current events, and that all citizens can believe in the ideals they choose.

In this country, 1,700 daily and 9,000 weekly newspapers are published. A few miles off the coast of Florida, a government controls the presses. The largest difference between the lives of the communists and the West is the free press.

Newspapers provide up-to-the minute reports, entertainment, and advertisements. These publications are constantly trying to improve themselves to serve the public better day after day.

I CAME, I SAW, I PHOTOGRAPHED

By JIM HILDEBRAND

There I was among an unruly, ill-mannered crowd of Goldwaterites, a thorn among roses. Why did I go? I was on a special photography assignment for the HATCHET: To photograph the Goldwater's on their arrival at the St. Joseph County Airport in South Bend.

The Fun Begins.

I arrived on the scene at 8:45 a.m. just in time to establish a key position at the fence in front of the platform. Here Senator Goldwater would give his talk. Then the fun began. Three elderly woman squeezed in front of me, one of whom began waving those iridescent Goldwater placards in front of my face and very unsurgically carved a neat little gash in my cheek.

When the Goldwater-Express 727 Astro-Jet quietly roared in, Mrs. Snodgrass standing to my rear, jabbed me in the back with what looked to me like a combination switchblade-cuticle clipper and asked if her two sweet little children could move up close. I emphatically replied "If they're so interested in seeing Mr. G. why didn't they get up at seven o'clock like the rest of us." She glared back at me through eyes only Medusa could match and gave a slight inspirational tug on her son's ear. He immediately responded by kicking me in the leg.

Gasp!

From the gasps I heard when the plane was sighted you'd have thought it was an original Flash Gordon creation. The only interesting sight I caught was Peggy Goldwater hanging her laundry on the line in the rear compartment.

Finally, the Goldwaters lumbered up the platform, and I was anticipating some great shots. But wouldn't you know it? The very gracious Mayor Prickett of Mishawaka was present also. Where did she stand? Right in front of Mr. G. She is so naturally candid. I bet she appears on every negative anyone took that day.

Curfew Law - Rejected or Accepted?

The HATCHET staff recently conducted a student survey with this question directed to the student body:

How do you feel about the possible adoption of a curfew law in South Bend?

SUANN ZWIERZYNSKI had this to say: I do not think that there is so much trouble in South Bend to create the need for a curfew. Let not the curfew instill in our youth a new incentive to trouble.

MARCIA MOODY: I think it's a great idea to put into use. It wouldn't bother me at all since I'm 18 already.

"Curfews should be aimed at people who need them. Most teenagers today are in before the appointed time," said BONNIE ORSZULAK.

SHARON PECZA: A curfew is a right for the parent to decide and should not be interfered with by the government.

"I think it's a good idea," said KATHY ZMYSLO. "You wouldn't have to worry about having to go home earlier than everyone else. Besides, I have to be in by 11:30 anyway, Jeff.

ERDMANN HOSTON: I'm against it. I think it stifles one's right to assemble.

GEORGE ZELLERS: This law will never help because the harm that will be done will be done. Law or not law!

ROMAN BIELAK was against the curfew because "If the curfew law is passed, it will only prove that the kids under 18 are the only people who are a nuisance to the police department. We all want to have a good time, but it is bad when older kids out of

Senior Usherettes Aim to Please

One of the most essential yet least acknowledged organizations at Washington High School is the Girls' Ushers Club. Under the direct supervision of Miss Marguerite Murphy, the Girls' Ushers Club takes the "limelight" from the boys at all play productions throughout the year. During basketball season, while the boys are ushering at the games, the Girls' Ushers Club is busily checking coats. Not only does this procedure apply to the basketball season, but throughout the school years as well.

To be known as a member of the Girls' Usher Club is truly a position to be proud of. The club president is Connie Jackson; vice-president, Sue Stafford; 2nd vice-president, Melody Kling, and Donna Rossow and Marcia Moody are board members.

high school make trouble and place the blame on others.

LINDA MILLER felt this way: I am against the proposed teenage curfew because its enforcement would require the establishment of a miniature gestapo.

TONY ROSMARIN: It is an extremely sensible idea. It holds true that those who are out after 11:00 p.m. are usually not roaming about with the intention of helping little old ladies across the street.

DREW LEACH: I don't think it's a very good idea. If the city government passes this law, the young people are going to stay out after 11:00 p.m. just to see what the police will do.

Both CAROL BERUS and MARY BONCZYNSKI are anti-curfew because they feel that there is no need for this restriction in South Bend at the present time.

JERRY RUDBECK thought that, "It would be better if this curfew included adults, also, and was enforced only when no good excuse could be given for being out until 11:00 p.m.

Panther 4-H'er is 'Willing Worker'

Senior Thomas Magee has been chosen as the HATCHET'S 4-H'er of the week. Tom belongs to the Willing Workers 4-H club of German Township, and is in his eighth year of club work.

Tom was chosen to represent his township at the County Junior Leader organization. He is also vice-president of his club.

Tom has completed seven years of club project work, has earned Championships in Home Furnishings, Breed Showmanship, Poland China, Litter, Health and Wood working.

8 Years of Progress.

The year 1964 has been a banner year for this 4-H'er. In April he was chosen a member of the Woodworking Achievement Honor Group. For two years in succession he has been named the King of German Township, has won the 4-H Key Club Award for recognition of outstanding contributions to 4-H club work, and has represented St. Joe County at this year's 4-H Round-Up at Purdue University.

He has established a record to be proud of. In 1961 he attended Junior Leader Train-

Voice of the Panther

Dear Editor:

Just where should we draw the line on the rights of the underclassmen at pep assemblies??? We SENIORS can remember when we were once freshmen sitting in the upper bleachers, where the air was hot and stale. The seniors then didn't make matters easier: they tore us up worse than the American flag over Fort McHenry. We were booed, taunted and mocked, but when the SENIORS went into their traditional yell, not one jeer was heard from the upper decks. We knew our place!!!

Now, after three short years, we have gained the traditional rights of SENIORS. We ask you to give us our due respect, underclassmen, by cheering with us, not against us. We would appreciate it and we know you will when you reach the twelfth grade.

Three from the Proud Class of '65.

Hi Everybody!

We had a little trouble with Cloud 9, but that's been taken care of since we had a new Mustang engine put in the old girl. We'll be zooming your way from now on, so, watch what you say because when you turn around you just might find a piece of "angel hair."

Jinx and I want to tell you we had a nice summer and we regret to inform the senior class that we were unable to be at the picnic for "Teddy," but we didn't forget the affair, so we sent "Cleo." What an angel! "Stop that Jinx."

"Dinx I'm hungry, I wish Mary Lou would bake me a chocolate cake like she did for 'Wally.'" "Jinx you are always hungry and besides it was his birthday and her mother helped her. On second thought I don't want to eat because when you eat you have to clean up the mess you make and do dishes. I hate to do dishes, but I'd rather do them than scrub baby bottles like Bruce Wiseman did at Pat Dudek's house."

"Toodie just loves to talk with her hands, even Mr. Lewandowski thinks so. He happened to catch her in the hall when he went to put the absence slip in the door. Wonder who she was talking to? It must have been pretty important."

Jinx did you know "Bubbles" Lukens discovered a new Beatle sensation? He is the greatest, the best and even better than Ringo . . . . He's Howard Rzeszewski!!!!

"Speaking of singing stars, The Animals would have better publicity if they hired Linda Miller because she can roll

Canadian Reporter Sums Up Locale

The (HATCHET'S) Canadian correspondent from Hamilton, Ontario, James Lewis, writes:

I am very pleased to be a member of the HATCHET staff for the years 1964 and 1965. I owe my thanks to one person from your student body, Pat Horwath, who made the writing of these articles possible.

Canadian City in Brief.

My home city, Hamilton, is the steel capital and third largest city in Canada. It contains three civic hospitals, one large Roman Catholic hospital, and an Ontario hospital for the mentally ill. This city is noted as the home of the Hamilton Tiger Cats, winners of the Grey Cup in 1963.

Hamilton is the birthplace of actor, Robert Beattie, and it holds one of the largest bridges in Canada.

"Too bad Chris Czerna did not have Senior English, she could have had a wonderful speech on her most embarrassing moment." (Chris remember when you were with your b.f. and something happened to something of your's? We'll let you tell the student body, Chris, because we blush easy.)

"Speaking of blushing it is now Cassie's turn to blush because we know all about sixth hour and John Lukaszewski (and the car)."

"All you freshman girls watch out because we heard John Farkas is looking for the right girl who can help him decorate his new '64 Chevrolet Malibu) car.

"We almost forgot, we were at the car wash and do you know that the state police are looking for a particular senior class member who doesn't believe in child labor laws? If you don't understand what we are talking about then what was Scott Van Der Heyden doing washing cars?

SENIOR BOYS ATTEND BUSINESS CLUB LUNCHEONS

Four senior boys are chosen each nine weeks by Mr. McNamara to represent Washington at South Bend's business clubs. Each Wednesday or Thursday they attend the Lions, Rotary or Kiwanis Club meetings. At the first luncheon-meeting, the "Junior Businessman" is introduced to representatives from the other city schools and men from the other city schools and men from many existing fields of commerce in the city. During their stay the boys make many warm and valuable friendships among the businessmen of our area.

Representatives Named.

Mike Fye will represent Washington at the Kiwanis Club and Creighton Miller will attend Lions' Club meetings during the first nine weeks of the school year. Jack Brown will attend the Rotary Club luncheons for the first nine weeks, and Jim McKinney will take his place during the latter half.

Women Voters Celebrate 44th Year

In 1920 the amendment granting women suffrage became effective and since that date many men have regretted it.

Before this time a woman's place was in the home; but now, more and more, women are spending their evenings at political meetings, campaigns, and polls, while their less political-minded husbands stay home washing the dishes.

In ten years the world that we live in will be run by the female. She will hold the top jobs in business and manage everything from the National Paper Clip Company to General Motors.

Woman Leadership in Sight. Each member of the President's cabinet will be a female and women shall also hold positions in the Senate and House of representatives. Even the White House shall be occupied by a woman.

So men, get your dish towels ready and gals prepare to see the White House.

WASHINGTON GIRLS TURN FISH

This year a girls' synchronized swim team, under the direction of Miss Judith Duesterberg, was organized at Washington High School. On September 11, 30 tried out for the team. By the following week, the number had risen to 41. To become members, the girls were required to pass tests consisting of the side-stroke, back crawl, breaststroke, and the treading of water.

At their first meeting, the "Sea Nymphs" elected officers. They are: President-Terry Marshall Vice-president-Rene Vanslager, Secretary - Judy Kapsa, Treasurer-Christy Otto, Pledge Trainer-Karin Mester, and Assistant Pledge Trainer-Pat Hendrick.

SONG FEST UNITES RIVALS

The Washington "Fitzzy Minstrels" joined in the fun at the traditional "Washington-Riley Round-up." This year they have added Bob Seall on bass, Bill Soderberg on the banjo, Basal Shepherd on the guitar and Mike Van Sloger, also on the guitar, to the group. The "Minstrels" sang "Down by the Riverside," "Green Fields," "If I Had a Hammer," "Fast Freight," "Tom Dooley," and "Drill Ye Terriers," for the program. The audience joined in on "This Land is Your Land," "Michael Row," and "When the Saints Go Marching In." The evening proved to be enlightening and enjoyable.

South Bend Businesses Employ DCE Trainees

Five members of Washington High School's D.C.E. program have found employment at various establishments in the South Bend area.

Gwen Althouse is a cashier at the LaSalle Avenue store of the Kroger Company.

Larry Chodzinski is employed at the Mohawk Flush Door Company, where he drives a highlift and is a component planner.

Walter Glon is working as a cashier and cook at Yummy's Drive-in on Western Avenue.

John Farkas is employed at the Stuart Optical Company in the St. Joseph Bank building.

Pat Bowles works for Myers Hardware as a sales girl, stock girl, and is involved in customer relations.

D.C.E. is planning a bake sale on October 9 and 10 at the Kroger Supermarket in the Belleville Shopping Center. A car wash, paper drive, and dance will be held later in the year.

A Pantheress Sounds Off

Welcome, female sports fans!

From a lady's point of view, this column will unravel the mysteries of the sports world from a feminine standpoint.

Team Spirit Bites Girls, Too.

Just what motivates a girl to attend a football game? Boyfriends? Curiosity? Excitement? Conformity? NO! It's a certain pride in our team... a drive that we call school spirit. We don't have the physique to be out on the field tackling the other team but we endeavor to play our part in becoming hoarse at the sound of the starting horn.

Both Connie Jackson and Paula Isabel agree that the reason they tried out for cheerleading was for the thrill of actively supporting their team.
