

The Washington
High School

SENIOR

edition

1994

Table of Contents

Farewells .....	Page 3
Senior Wills .....	Pages 4-9
Future Plans .....	Pages 10-11
Through the years .....	Pages 12-14
Memorium .....	Page 15
Senior Favorites.....	Pages 16-17
Back Page .....	Page 18

THANK YOU FOR ALL THE VOLUNTEERS:

MARY FLETCHER
AMANDA GRIFFIS
CRAIG LANGHOFER
JIM WISKOTONI
SARAH BANDERA
AIMEE DECOCQ
PAM MORRIS
MICHELLE CROSS
PETER BANDERA

SPECIAL THANKS TO:
ALL SENIOR ENGLISH
TEACHERS
MR. DAVID KASER
MR. OTOLSKI
RYAN DELEE
TASHA REED
MR. FRANK MARICONI
STEVE ROSETTO

HAPPY RETIREMENT TO MR.
RARICK AND MRS. HINTZ
THANKS FOR ALL YOUR HELP!
GOOD LUCK TO ALL THE TEACHERS WHO ARE MOVING ON

Farewells to the Class of 1994

To the Class of 1994:

To the Class of 1994:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I congratulate you on the fine job you have done the last four years at Washington High School. Each year it is essential that the senior class provide the leadership that is so important for a high school to be successful.

The numerous contributions to Washington High School by you, the senior class, are greatly appreciated. A special thanks to the class officers, advisory board members and to each senior who has successfully carried off each major class event. Your positive efforts have been important to our high school to maintain an atmosphere where students can learn and teachers can teach.

We hope that through our curriculum and extra curricular programs you have been able to satisfy your academic and personal needs. Each of you should continue to develop your greatest potential in order to live in today's society.

As you look back over your high school career, only you can determine if you have been successful in reaching your goals and accomplishments. The school and your parents can only provide the assistance for your direction; you have to assume the end results.

Now is the time for each of you to examine what you have accomplished, what you hope to accomplish, and how you will go about living your adult life. Your answers to these questions will play a large part in the quality of life you live.

I would like to wish all of you a happy, healthy, and successful life. I have enjoyed working with the Class of 1994.

Ever Onward,

David L. Kaser, Principal

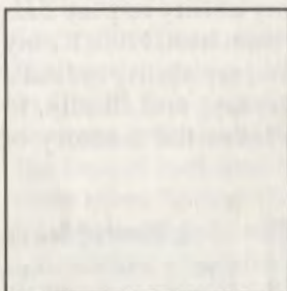

Since you arrived here at Washington in August of 1990, and from that Freshman year until now, you established new friendships with fellow students and with staff members. You have had the opportunity to achieve academically, athletically, and in the fine arts program. You have made choices that have allowed you to enjoy your years here as well as prepare you for future endeavors. As you prepare to leave now for those endeavors, take with you the relationships you've established and the memories of your accomplishments. I have enjoyed the opportunity to be associated with you, and I wish you well in those choices in life that you'll make.

Ever Onward,

Mr. Otolski, Class Sponsor

Dear senior

Our days are coming to an end and our lives are about to experience change. Four years ago we were frightened and shy individuals.

We didn't know what life had in store for us. Now we are still afraid, but as we journey into that freshman year again, I hope that this time we are more prepared and more mature to deal with such obstacles. It's funny to see how much we've grown as a class and individually. I wish you all luck in your future plans and goals. May we always remember the school that helped shape us into the people we are today. Thank you for being such a supportive class. I was an honor to be your president.

Ever Onward Panthers,

Tasha Reed, Class President

Dear fellow students,

As our year draws to a close, I am reminded of all the aspirations, emotions, and experiences we have shared during our high school career. We have made friendships that will last a lifetime, growing and learning with one another. It is hard to believe that soon we will be embarking on a new adventure, that adventure being our future. Many of us will be going off to college, expanding our all ready overworked brain cells; some of us will be going into the work force or starting families. Whatever path your life may lead you on, I wish you all the best of luck and thank you for the memories. I hope to see you in 2004 for our ten year reunion!

Ever Onward Green,

Ryan De Lee, Valedictorian

Being of sound mind and body

I, Cary Woltman, being of sound body and no mind, leave to Amy Hoffman our memories of biology, and all those messed up labs, and a credit card to the Buckle for all the clothes we buy from there. Can't wait for my tour of IU! To my trigonometry buddy, Clarence Williams, I leave a big brown box for his new home. To Ryan Whit(e), I leave my shoe collection, and my red and white bodysuit. To the freshman saxaphones, I leave the memories of my Liz Claiborne, and my Azar menus. To the trumpet section, I leave my amazing ability to stay on the left foot and play at the same time. To Kelly Wyant, I leave you my phone number so we can still have those first hour talks. To Jeff Kaser, my apologies, and all our memories. I hope you become everything you ever dreamed of becoming. To Laura Holston, I leave my Jordan's that I know you love. To Jenny Jacox, I leave more time in first hour to do French homework, and finally to Michelle Wiltrout, I leave memories of the snake garden, free food at KFC with the Chinese-Polish guy, the Culver Military Academy from the movie Alive, Hosé from the jalepenó field, all those times we "accidentally" missed school, Tim and Dan's GQ pose, and all the clothes you borrowed and stained. I give you my ego trip, and a car that we don't have to fix every two seconds. May you find a guy with a nice car, and a job that consists of more than greeting people at the door, and saying smoking, or non?!

I, Michelle Wiltrout, leave all of the following: Michelle Perez, my band chair (well, you don't need it anymore, do you?). Andrea McNerney the fact that now you are the voice. Speak your mind, girl. Sherri, I can't really leave you anything because you already have my smart mouth. Phil Weber, a pack of gum. You guys are the greatest. I'm gonna miss you. Laura, I'll leave you our sociology and English memories. Don't forget about our "dentist" days. Amy Hoffman, come on, say it just once. And finally, Cary, we have so many memories here at WHS. Let's start with Ryan, the lunatic driver. What a mistake, and KFC days, we were the best managers at BK you know. Jamey, Mike U, Mike G., the list keeps going. Jim and Ian... they are cute, aren't they? We better not show them this, it will go to their heads. Colin, why did you let me make that major mistake? You were supposed to be my best friend, and this is how you treat me? You let me go out with that?! I could talk for hours on our memories, but I won't. By the way, how many guys did we go out with? Jenni, my beloved sister, I didn't forget about you. I leave you with a bottle of hair dye. Now you won't have to buy your own. Later. C/O '94 rules! We're outta here!

I, Gregory S. Chudzicki, leave Brent Ortman my stylish walk, Damon Peak my ability to play basketball better than him, Nick F., my elbows, Alex W., my ability to find a girl that isn't crazy, and finally, to all the girls, I leave the memory of me. See ya!

I, Fletch, leave the curse of senioritis to all underclassmen, Pat Dougall no longer gets his name yelled in the hall, and the baseball team will have to find new rowdy fans. To future soccer teams, the off-side trap, practically perfected by the 1993 defense, Mr. Foley and Mrs. Moriarty an Academic Decatholon team that doesn't know what a two hour lunch is, Mr. Alspaugh, twelve dozen caramel doughnuts, and Hilary Rodhem-Clinton's autobiography, and to Mr. Kileen's history classes, Sho-gun and Shaka Zulu. Matt, you get an A+ in the "How to be a Gentleman" course, Phil Weber, a hearing device so he can eavesdrop from way across the classroom, Adam, hot chocolate, a pair of gloves, and an awesome plaid umbrella. Kim Gruber, Bob and his trolley, most of all, I leave you with the memory that I'm out of here, and you're not!

I, Greg Krawiec, leave my talent of ditching the security guards in the hallway during lunch to my brother, Brian, and to whoever thinks they could beat my record of having five different cars during high school, good luck! It's expensive! P.S. to Mr. Kindt, I leave the name Craig Cralick!

I, Jennifer Pace, leave Tonya Pace all those magnets, (remember what I told you). Also, thanks for all the great memories. To some new freshman, I leave my awesome locker. to the C/O '95, I leave the senior research paper. Have fun! I'm outta here! Finally.

I, Tara Horvath, leave the girl's soccer team my ability to flip people on the other team over their backs without getting carded. To Monica Estrada, I leave the ability to cope when best friends totally dump you to get ahead. Finally, I leave Mike Whitlock the ability of going to prom with who you want not who your mom wants. I'm outta here! Finally!!

I, Sarah Joy Bandera, leave the following to my fellow Panthers: To my little bro, Pete, two more years of riding the

Senior Wills

"Bandera Bus" to school. (Now you get the front seat!) To Andrea O. and Julie E., all the memories of our great lunch hours! To the future cheerleaders of WHS, I leave all my tiny little skirts so you can freeze to death at those cold football games. To Matt (AJ) I leave my locker mirror to admire yourself in! And finally, to each and every Panther who has helped to make my memories of WHS wonderful, I leave a big THANKS! I'm outta here! Bye-bye!

I, Natalie Basker, of poofy hair and loud self, leave to the following: Jenni B., my locker for next year, the parties I cannot leave you alone at, Eric (God only knows why), the nights we stalked him, and The CHICKEN! To Kelly A., I leave Florida, Larry, Noble Roman's, and all the luck at Michigan. To Amy P., I leave all the mushrooms you can eat, and luck with Lewis. To my little sister, Courtney, I leave you on your own next year, and the help to keep Kyle in line. To Megan, I leave luck to you and Shane, and the guts to tell your parents about him. Kristi C., I leave a trip to Pandora's box, and the queer guy crossing the street. Chris V., gas money for all the times you took me home. Carol D., the sanity to put up with Adam's stupidity for one more year. To Jeremy L., I leave one music tape, a card, and a question you never answered. Reggie, I leave the luck at Marian (GO PAANTHERS) and the memories at WHS. Coach Bov, I leave a semester supply of laundry soap to wash uniforms with, a tracing system for missing clothes, and the power to finally beat Penn. Mrs. Drapek, for never letting me go down the wrong path. The guy's soccer team, my love. And finally, the C/O 95, THE DARE TO OUT DO US!!!

I, Amy Payne, leave Stephanie Above the Rim, a long lost gas cap, and luck. To Becky Wilfing I leave right wing. Take good care of it. To all the people taking Miss G's class next year I wish you luck. To my little brother I leave luck to make it through the next two years at school and at home. To Lisa and Carol I leave all the memories of the flag trips. I hope you guys go far next year. To Kelly Anderson, I leave all the long talks on the phone and our long lasting friendship. To Michelle I leave all the stupid things we did, that one night at Kenny Phillips, the SAT class at St. Joe, and the rumors about you and my man (you know what I'm talking about). Finally to all my Senior friends, Good luck at what ever college you attend next year.

I, Amy Lynn Hoffman, leave to Cary Woltman all our exciting talks, our joyous memories of band (NOT), and the memory of IU beating Michigan. Boy, was that fun! Just remember, IU is awesome! To Stephanie and Stacey Kaufman, I leave you two the fun you're going to have next year in Guard, it's going to be your last, so make it the best! Also, I wish you the best of luck and happiness with your men! To Scott Siri, I leave you a lifetime supply of business cards! I also leave you with the determination (that you already have) to be the best rifle you think, and want, to be! I'll surely be emulating you in just a few years! To James Luchowski, I leave strength, the strength to make wise decisions, you womanizer you! To Jeff Kaser, I hope YOU leave ME the Camaro! Seriously, I leave you all my IU clothing, stay true to 'em and see ya down there someday! To Jackie Pierce, I leave you with all the gossip that we exchanged in the office and in History. Always remember our night out on 20! To Greg Krawiec, I leave my great driving ability with a stick shift. To Josh Cousins, I leave a mirror for you to admire yourself, thanks for the locker! To Matt Bussell, I leave my Algebra-Trig notebook in exchange for some cookies! To Kristine Karkiewicz, I leave no more accounting work, ever! To Michelle Wilttrout, I leave you a new vocabulary, a cleaner, more positive one! To Laura Holston, I leave more than 5 skip days before having to go to WES. To Gena Steinke, I leave an all paid dinner at Ryan's (but only if Troy is working). To B.M., I leave you a life of your own, so you can stay out of mine. To the Colorguard, I leave you with all the fun, work, and practice you will go through. Just remember that it will all pay off in the end. Watch out for Gore the 3rd and Izit, they're crazy! And of course, I saved the best for last: To Rich Siri, I leave all the chocolate chip cookie dough ice cream and magic shell your heart desires (or stomach can hold). I also give you my heart, which is filled with love for you! I love you!

I, Anisha J. Alexander, leave the under classmates my sense of humor, because you're going to need it. Da'net Jackson the ability to walk to school alone. I won't have to worry about coming to school and see somebody trying to be like me (Shamika Chatman). Finally, I leave Marcus W. the loving memories we had at WHS.

I, Twiana Easton, leave Da'net Jackson the ability to walk home alone. Please send me an invitation to you and Mr. Baby Face's wedding. I leave you the ability to find a new mature, "senior" friend, and to make those good chocolate chip cookies alone. To Sabrina Phillips, please get taller. I will leave you $50 to buy new clothes that fit. Last, but not least, I leave Mr. Taffy Mallard the ability to find a good, mature student like me so you can pick on them in the hallway and say, "Do you have a pass, young lady?" in that deep voice of yours. To the C/O '95, don't try so hard to be the best like the C/O '94 cuz you can't touch us! Bye!

I bequeath the following...

I, Melissa Szucs, leave my brother, Todd, all the cold mornings having to get out of bed for school, all the idiots in the hallway, and all the success in school and baseball. Kristi Chrzan all the stress of our research paper, and all the good times we had in our classes. Natalie Basker all the space cadets, and fun times in French class, Steven Francis all the Gas-X in the world. Jackie Pierce all the stress in first hour, a key rack, and all the good conversations in your car. Mr. Perry all the perverted jokes and french women you want, and the C/O '94 the best success and happiness.

I, Jim Wiskotoni, hereby leave to the basketball team the hopes of a successful season next year. Hope you still have Coop as coach. To Shaq, Loser, and Beeker I leave the locker row, don't let any nerds take it over. Oh yeah, be nice to Heather. To Shaq I leave the ability to find some more lockers next year, and all the food you can eat; put some weight on boy. To Jessica Lynn I leave all my love and the memory that I will always be here for you, and that if I ever have a daughter I'm naming her after you. Don't ever forget me. To Stacey, Stephanie, and Marcy, I leave all the memories of third hour HATCHET. I know I didn't always show it, but I really did enjoy being with you. Hope you all find that perfect man. To Jenny Brenner I leave an endless supply of cherry flavored Clearly Canadian. To Adam I leave DQ management.

Good luck with the old lady and the geek. To Heather I leave the memory of being stalked. To Nick I leave luck with H.M., hope you get lucky, and get her away from that geek, whoever he is. To Erin and Aaron I leave the ability to distinguish between the two of you. To Aaron I leave some moral standards. Try finding a woman that is in high school. To Mrs. Green I leave the ability to get over the loss of your babies, we know you will miss us. To the remainder of Mrs. Green's advisor group I leave the memory of all those Wednesday mornings and the memory that we are out of here and you're not! To Ms. Richardson I leave the ability to get past all of the attitudes you will have on the staff next year. To Heather M. I leave 3 more years of coming to school, good luck. Forget the freshmen, Nick is the man for you. Now that I'm gone you will be able to get to your locker a little easier. To Roman I leave more days of school, maybe you will actually come to school some next year, and the memory of the all-nighter at Lance's house the night of prom. To all of my senior friends I leave all the great memories that we had in our last four years, and I wish you all luck in whatever you do next year. Finally, to my best friend of all time, Jessi, I leave the thought that I will always be here for you. I also leave my thanks for always being there for me when I needed someone to talk to. Most of all I leave you my love along with my everlasting friendship.

I, Kelly L. Hay, being of sound mind and body leave to the following: to Brigitte Buda and Erin Maenhout I leave my catcher's equipment. Take good care of it. To Kim Gruber I leave a year supply of sunflower seeds for those "long baseball games." To Beth Haugel I leave all my Latin stories.

Thanks for listening. To Julie Brenner, I leave you with the memories of southeast. Meredith I leave with a shoulder to shed tears on. To Jody H. I leave you our "baseball song." (Hey!) To Jodi J. I leave you the "Finish Line" and all of our talks about boys. To my best friend Stacy I leave you with all of our childhood memories. Thanks for always being there. To my mom (Mrs. Hay) I leave you with the memories of all our little talks. To Brian Blondell I leave you with all of my love. You will have it forever. Finally I leave the rest of the school the luck to match the spirit of the Class of '94!

I, Kelly Anderson, leave my sister Sam my locker, my room when I move out, and only when I'm gone, and my tennis racquet since you use it anyways.

To Adam Hooten-psst!-a prom date, and my dog-he doesn't eat Spanish books! To Jen Bren I leave my college phone # so I know whats up with Sam. To Ryan De Lee I leave my math memories-all of them, and a whip! Boy am I going to miss you! Good Luck with Aimee. To Amy Payne I leave a life to be filled with memories from 1st grade to 12th grade, and a glass of lemonade. To Gnat-everything from NR to lawn chairs and J.J. Finally, to the tennis team I leave all the fame and glory I wish we could have this year. To Kim, our coach, all the great times to continue next year. To Steph I leave that #1 spot. To Abby, Sabrina, Robbie, Jessi and all other members of the C/O '95 I leave the best of luck to keep the team together, remember it will be your senior year to make WHS tennis the BEST!

I, Brian Blondell, leave the baseball underclassmen my knowledge of the game and non-executing situations. To Matt Gruber, I leave my entire right arm for you to use especially my shoulder and elbow. Woodcox, the ability to take charge and carry the team to a championship. Also Woody, don't forget you can't eat sausage in a straight-jacket, so don't try it. To Jason Whitmer I leave the flip-downs, use them well and catch everything. To Adam Hooten, I leave my "ever so mighty, one of a kind" basketball head. Take PRIDE and keep the spirit alive, "ON LIVE THE BASKETBALL HEADS." To Bana-aBana (Mr. Banaszak) I leave my "ever so lucky betting schemes" against you. Good luck next year, maybe you'll win. "NOT!" To Mrs. Coddens I leave my abnoxious humor, don't ever forget it! Finally, I challenge the '95 class to try and top the untouchable seniors. Good luck, you'll need it! I'm out! "#8"

Senior wills

I, Tara Sue Tidey, leave Mrs. Drapek and Mrs. Coddens all the thanks in the world for a wonderful education. Rachel Morris, the memories of our three years in first hour. Jerry Berringer, my car keys and the singles add, "you'll find a girl someday." I leave Jennifer Grossnickle a lifetime supply of Dr. Pepper and a towel to clean up all your pop spills. Dan Kaser all the plain M&Ms you can eat. Mindy Snedaker a tree so you can make your own paper instead of always asking for mine. I leave Matt Bussell, well you know what I leave you. Finally, I leave the c/o '95 the fun times and knowledge to try and match the unforgettable c/o '94.

I, Craig A. Langhofer, being of sound mind, body, and hormones do hereby will, my "mophia" van to my brother, Brad who can use it for what ever he pleases . To Matt and Kim Gruber, I leave a shot of that miracle eucher enhancing drug known as "horse -i-s." To all the swimmers I leave my great talent, as I know you will need it, and to Colin Nuner, my nickname. To Jacob Matthews I leave that piece of Elkart's banner that you forgot to sew back on. I also leave to my bro. Brad my unique way of getting in trouble for doing absolutely nothing. To Bov I leave my horse riding ability, may you soon own one. To Mr. B I leave a cheap house, and to all you city folks I leave my boots and my hat, if you have the courage to wear them as I did. That's all folks.

I, Kristy Jaskowiak, leave all my homies that are not leavin' this year this school and all the great years that go along with it. Have fun. To everyone thats going with me the fun years that we had. For all the people that mean something to me (feel special) heres what I leave you... Melissa, I leave you a lifetime supply of panties and bras, a year round pass to take Greyhound to NAP, railroad tracks, a sprinkler, a football so you don't have to use a sprinkler as one, a Fathers' Day card so you don't have to go buy one at six o'clock in the morning and last but not least a night at the Ritz with a motorcycle man! Ha, Ha! Lonnie, to you I leave everything that is fake like eyes and I.D.s, a Long John Silver box full of buds and all the Snow Creek Berries that you can imagine. Enjoy. Cher, my ace, I leave you Grape Nehi, school dances with Sunny Delight, basketball games, a zoo, and last but not least, old faithful. What would we have done without her. I almost forgot, I also leave you all those funky roaches that you love! Susan, to you I leave a good joke, some stairs, and a leash to put your dog on! Jen, I leave you Miss Nash, PAT, a diploma, and a new Wayne. Brenda S., to you I leave Hammer Jr. Have fun! Evelyn, I leave you a new dance and juice. Stop stealing form my place. Cedric, I leave you a room at Motel 6 and all that boobank stuff. Tara, to you I leave a stereo that works and a new man. All my teachers, thanks for everything. Everyone else, Cya!

I, Helen K. Densmore, leave my brother, Harry, dance lessons with Tara, your own radio show, and the kitchen table for the next three years. To Josh and Gator I leave broken bolts, a bottle of Cool Seas, the number to my Swiss bank account and last but not least, my brother, "Everlast" take care of him for me. To Jerry, I leave two chocolate milkshakes with long straws and $2.08. To James, a new pair of tap shoes. I heard you give lessons (Tara's still waiting!). And to all of you I leave Bobbi and the rest of the incoming freshman. May God help you all!

I, Aimee DeCocq, leave the following things to the following people. To Ramla, Julie and Sarah four years of cheerleading memories (good and bad). To Michelle, what can I say besides, I I-I-like you! To Elijah an awesome Lacrosse team. to Meert, Julie, and Meredith, Putter's and our trip to Kroger's. To Amy P. and Mary our announcer skills. To Mary Fletcher, Michelle Cross and Kelly Claybrooke the free-for-all on the Greene School playground, and Mr. Florey! To Tate Lane, 18 Yrs. of friendship, don't forget me. To Craig Langhofer, my fourth brother, a cowboy hat, and a non-sexist attitude. To "the crew," N.D. football parties. To Kenny Z., my oldest friend, the dummy that you put in my tree. To every one I forgot, an invitation to visit I.U. And to Ryan, I leave everything else. My love, my heart, Hacienda, two proms, the orange carpet, May 12, 1993, September 15th of every year after '92, a telephone w/ free long distance calls, all the Twix you can eat, infinite Subway cc cookies, and all of the luck and love I can give you. I love you don't forget me while your in California. BYE!

We're outta here

I, Jodi Marie Johns, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave the following, to Jody Harmacinski, I leave you "Whities" rear and the patience to put up with me next year. To Kelly Hay, I leave the patience to tolerate Brian and to Brian the patience to tolerate Kelly—Good Luck Always! To Meredith Andrzejewski a lifetime supply of black licorice and chili. To Mary F., I give a live goldfish and a whole frog. To Kenny Z. the "P" music and all faces of death movies. To Lance Robbins, the ability to see the light flicker at 9:32 or 2:01 whichever comes first. To Craig L. (corn) and Brett B. each other. To Melissa F. all the fun times at Sandi's and you can have 3-2-1. To Tasha Reed, all the money and gold she can wear and spend. To Kodell Jackson, a large bottle of baby lotion to take to college—you'll need it. To Nathan S., my finger puppet and your own business so everyone else don't no about it. To Coach Bov., a razor and a how to shave kit, oh yeah, and tickets to all of the Garth Brooks concerts—plus there's no charge for my football tips this season (smile)!—Good Luck next year. And last but not least, to my brother Matt, Good luck in your next two years at W.H.S. And in everything you ever do! And finally, to Jessi L, a mere memory to remember my shoes and our college list! To every one else I leave the spirit of the class of 1994!

I, Tasha S. Reed, of sound body and mind leave all my home girls fond memories of me. I leave Tish McCurn a big, fat kiss from Tupac. To Jacques, I leave my huge purple dinosaur named Barney. I leave Tangineka the whole entire U.P. mall (you have to give me discounts of course). To Tewanne, I leave you the freedom to do whatever you want. To Heather, I leave a rich man who can provide for you (I'll get some of the dividends of course). To Traci, I leave my patience and wisdom. Don't sell yourself short. To Kodell, I leave a fat deal with any pro b-ball team that you want to play for. (I'll get season tickets to the games, but of course). To all my little homies who haven't graduated yet—ahhh, hahhh. Hope y'all enjoy your stay at WHS. To all my teachers, especially Mrs. Hintz, Mrs. Coddens, and Mrs. Drapek, I leave my appreciation and thanks

I, Amanda Griffis, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeth the following things to my friends. To the soccer team, I leave great ball-handling skills, a practice field, and a winning attitude to make next year's team a success. I leave fond memories of CEAM and a doctor on call for cross-country skiing accidents to Mary Fletcher. To Craig Langhofer, my cowboy, I leave a big thank you for all the back massages and talks. To Amy Payne, I leave a pair of skates from Howard Park Ice Rink and an ear that will always listen to you. To Aimee DeCocq, I leave the Shartruce twins and a deck of euchre cards. To Ryan DeLee, I leave a year's supply of used tires and black underwear with red flames. Ryan DeLee, you're my hero! To Eric Kurzhal, I leave a bottle of aspirin to combat all of your headaches. To the crew, I leave the undying spirit at football and basketball games, many ticket stubs from movies, and best of all, laughter. You're the best! To my little brother, Drew, I leave good luck for next year and a spot on the golf team. And to all the underclassmen—Cya!

I, Kristi Marie Chrzan, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Kim Jozwiak, a guy who treats you right. To Holly Nimtz, the wish for a prize winning stallion, and a cool horse, too. To Natalie Basker, a gay guy near a second-hand book store. To Kristine Karkiewicz, an ever-clean blotter and some Hacienda chips (by the way, change your name). To Jessi Lentych, I leave a Little Mermaid tape & my apologies, thanks for making school bearable. To Lisa Wroblewski, my thanks for naming Claude, and a threat to keep in touch. To Diana Palomo, I leave fully-operating organs and my apologies for those early tennis fights. Mike Grzeskowiak, to you I leave the memory of my first skipping experience (Thanks, now I'm a junkie!), I hope you never lose your great enthusiasm for life. To Lisa Grzeskowiak, I leave the strength to put up with Mike. To Jessica Wamser, I leave one precious smile, my best memory of you. To Gator I leave cold water on the beachfront in May. To ARON (Nora), I leave fun in a boring class. To Jim Wiskotoni, I leave a college schedule filled with classes that don't start until noon and many free hours (HATCHET). To Kim Pace, my thanks for being the little sister I never had, keep an eye on the fam for me. To Brenda Scott-oh, suki, suki now! To Tim Pegues, I leave shy hellos in the hallways. To Meredith Andrzejewski I leave laughter, understanding, compassion, and an always open door. To Amanda Griffis, a melon girl outfit. To Mary Fletcher, my head on a silver platter for this being so long. To Matt Bussell, a good mood to use in the morning. To Errin Taylor, I leave a new pattern for the cover of your college books (I've learned alot from you this year). To Mrs. Green, I leave a cure for your intimidation. To Mr. Alspaugh, I leave a Looney Tunes tie and my new love for math. To Mrs. Richardson, a staff without complaints. Mrs. Drapek, I leave all of my respect and my thanks for your influence-it means more than you'll ever know. To Melissa Szucs, I leave term paper strength, fun in 3/4 of your classes, I really had more fun this year because of you. Last but certainly not least, to Jennifer Pace, I leave every ounce of friendship in my body, no one has touched my life more. I hope you know how wonderful you really are!

Senior Wills

I Jessica E. Lentych, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following; to the lunch bunch I leave a lunch hour without my beautiful singing; to Andrea I leave our exciting Memmorial meetings, my ability to talk to anyone and anything that walks, and my great tennis ability; to Liz a summer vacation without me asking to ride horses: NOT!; to Connie a trunk full of Dave Thomas signs and a billboard that says "Schmuk up"; to Julie I leave my ability to hold a conversation: just kidding; to Patty and Megyn I leave two Big Burritos from Taco Bell and a rubber apple square from the bakery; to R-Dog and S-Dog I leave a great big JACK; to Mrs. Cohen, a class period without me talking; to Amy and Julie, "Hey, do you want to play shodow?" to Melissa I leave an appointment to meet a Meijer at 3:00 a.m.; to Lisa I leave two windows for your old car; to Jodi I leave a seat in the wrong row in Latin; to Diana I leave a can of kidney beans; to Pam I leave a life size Claud and a life time supply of gum; to Latin buffoons I leave a fart bomb; to Pam, Lisa, Sarah and Diana I leave a life time with me (aren't you guys lucky); and to all the underclassmen I forgot I leave and declare all Monday's official holidays.

I Matthew L. Bussell leave these choice items to the following people: To Rick Kedik I leave my snowboarding abilities, you know you need it. To Kristi Chrzan I leave you this will, because you forced me to write it. To Gena Stinke I leave a little bit of luck on surviving WHS when Rick and I leave. To Kristy Jaskowiak I leave a whole lot of food, because you are always hungry in first hour. Don't eat it your new car!! To Amy Hoffman I leave my best wishes on surviving the parties at I.U.. Take it easy on Bobby Knight. To the whole senior class: a whole lot of luck on surviving the outside world, I hope we can meet at a class reunion or two.

P.S. Always make yourself happy!!

I, Jennica Jill Alexis Pawelski, leave Elliot P. the two loose screws in my locker, Chris M., Azar's and all our long talks, James L., four words—

"I love you, man!", Rich S., another car wreck, Matthew P, a map and a clue, Derek D., a lifetime supply of golf balls, Erik K., sponges, Jeremy M., my laughter, Jessi M., my grace on the dance floor, Abby S., my crayons to color people happy, Stacey or Stephanie K, one of you get a haircut, Missy H., "Neon Green" and "Log" theme songs, Kathy C., the Angel of Music, Tara K., our eight person clap thing, Janice K., memories of Kurt Cobain and River Pheonix, Kelly R., our lovely dances in fourth hour, Lori W., Todd, Heather W., my tolerance (what's left of it), Michelle R., my granddaughter, luck with Harold, Jerry B., two chocolate shakes with long straws, Gator, my make-up, Jason L., my French book, Scott E., my two flying dogs and two pockets, and to Kim S., my seat in French. To anyone and everyone, a question to ponder—If school is the place we learn to communicate, why do teachers tell us, "No talking!"?

THE HATCHET STAMP

WILL BE THE WHS

THE SENIORS WILL

IN ALL ENDEAVORS

THEY ENCOUNTER

AFTER GRADUATION.

GO GREEN!!!!

A little message to all you underclassman from a few seniors. You know, we can't wait to get out of here, but we're still doing our homework and going to class. If you think your brain cells will be better used soaking up alcohol or some other drug, use some to think again. You know, the education you get at WHS is one of the best. Have pride, cooperate, and move ever onward to that high-paying job. You're our future, too.

FUTURE PLANS

Michelle Wilttrout plans to have as much fun as possible, and attend IUSB to study computer programming. She hopes to get married and have two children.

Jimmy Donaldson plans on helping the family with its newly established business, CJ's, after high school. Meanwhile, he will be working towards an electrical apprenticeship.

Amy Hoffman plans to attend Indiana University Bloomington to study accounting. After graduating college and working as a CPA, she hopes to marry the man of her dreams, and start a family.

Aimee DeCocq plans to attend Indiana University Bloomington to play soccer and major in physical therapy. After college, she will be marrying Ryan DeLee.

Keith Taylor plans to go to college and study technology after high school. He hasn't decided where he wants to go, but wherever it is, he hopes there are a lot of girls around.

Ken Taylor plans to get a good paying job in welding as soon as he completes high school. He has already finished training in this field at Ivy Tech.

Rod Forester would like to study communications at a technical school, and eventually find a good job.

Elijah Owens will be attending Harvard to major in economics or government. After acquiring a degree, he will take over corporate America, make too much money, and buy a house in the suburbs with a two car garage somewhere in the Pacific Northwest.

Kelly Anderson will study genetic engineering at the University of Michigan, and hopefully play tennis for the school.

Marsha Williams will be attending Indiana Business College, and then Tennessee State.

Kimberly Scope is going to attend IUSB and Saint Mary's to study nursing. She would also like to start a family.

Twiana Easton will be attending college where she will major in nursing to become an RN.

Tamika Donaldson is attending the International Business College in Fort Wayne, Indiana where she will take office administration classes. In 14 months she will have earned her Associate degree.

Steven Hoover is going to a technical school and will hopefully be accepted into an apprenticeship program.

Charles Sanders will go to college and get married.

Jacques Black will attend IUSB for four years, and afterwards go on to law school to become a criminal lawyer.

Rick Folkner will be attending college.

Melissa Szucs will continue employment at Martins supermarket. She will get married, and have two or three children.

Natalie Basker is attending Purdue University in West Lafayette and will be studying chemical engineering, and perhaps go into medicine. Then, she plans to be married and have children.

Kristine Karkiewicz plans on attending IUSB this fall, and attend to transfer to another school her sophomore year.

Kenny Zielinski will be attending Purdue University.

Nathan Giszewski will be in attendance at Purdue University. He has been accepted into the School of Engineering and will pursue a career in chemical engineering.

Tate Lane will be attending IUPUI to study computer programming and play baseball. After school, he would like to start his own business and marry his girlfriend, Amy.

Steve Francis will be attending the University of Evansville to study engineering and play football.

Jody Harmacinski will attend Indiana University Bloomington in the fall, and plans to study general business, or social work.

Melissa Fritz will be attending either Butler University or the University of Indianapolis to study nursing or medical technology, and specialize to be an X-ray technician.

Tara Horvath plans on working at Holy Cross Care Services, Inc., and going to IUSB. Later, she plans to move out on her own, and marry her boyfriend.

Michelle Cross will attend Indiana University Bloomington, and major in photojournalism while minoring in radiography. She wishes to find a good paying job, and purchase her own home.

Helen Densmore will be working for about a year, and then will attend college.

Julie Brenner is enrolled at St. Mary's College, and will major in Elementary Education.

Lonnie Stokes will attend Indiana University Bloomington to study business. Since, this is going to be her last summer here, she is going to party.

Kelly Hay will attend Indiana University Bloomington to major in accounting, and hopefully minor in finance.

Brian Blondell is attending St. Joseph College where he will play baseball. He intends his major to be business administration, and will either minor in accounting or law.

Jennifer Pace will be attending Bethel

BEST AND MOST

FEMALE

JENNIFER CIESIELSKI
LISA WROBLEWSKI
MICHELLE HAGEDORN
JULIE BRENNER
JODI JOHNS
JESSICA LENTYCH
AMY MEERT
JULIE BRENNER
MEREDITH ANDRZEJEWSKI
ANGIE WILLIAMS
STACY SMITH
AMY MEERT

LISA WROBLEWSKI
JODY HARMAZINSKI
MEREDITH ANDRZEJEWSKI
JODI JOHNS
TASHA REED
MARY FLETCHER
SRAH BANDERA
HEATHER HILL
JULIE BRENNER
SARAH BANDERA
AMY PAYNE
AMANDA GRIFFIS
AIMEE DECOCQ
JENNIFER CIESIELSKI
VICKI NILLSON
KRISTI CHRZAN
LORI OLIVER
ANGIE WILLIAMS
TASHA REED
SARAH BANDERA
JENNICA PAWELSKI
AIMEE DECOCQ
MEREDITH ANDRZEJEWSKI
AIMEE DECOCQ
MICHELLE HAGEDORN
JODI JOHNS
AMITA SIMA
AMY MEERT
SARAH BANDERA
MEREDITH ANDRZEJEWSKI
AIMEE DECOCQ
AMANDA GRIFFIS
AIMEE DECOCQ
AMY PAYNE

ADORABLE BASHFUL DARING ELIGIBLE FASHIONABLE GULLIBLE HUMOROUS INNOCENT KIND LAZY NAIVE PERSUASIVE

QUIET RELIABLE TALENTED UNDERSTANDING UNIQUE WILD CUTEST SMILE
FUNNIEST LAUGH
TALKATIVE SCHOOL SPIRIT CHANGED WORST DRIVER BEST DRIVER
BIGGEST PARTIER
MUSICIAN CAR
OWES THE MOST MONEY
BIGGEST SKIPPER
G.Q.
ARTIST
ACTOR BIGGEST MOUTH EYES
BIGGEST EXCUSE MAKER OBNOXIOUS ATHLETIC PREDICTABLE UNPREDICTABLE OPTIMISTIC PESSIMISTIC CUTEST COUPLE BIGGEST FLIRT
BIGGEST EGO AGRESSIVE

MALE

NATHAN GISZEWSKI
BRIAN COOK
LANCE ROBBINS
CRAIG LANGHOFER
JOSH COUSINS
BRETT BUDA
KENNY ZIELINSKI
JIM WISKOTONI
CRAIG LANGHOFER
TATE LANE
SHANNON DOBRUCKI
NATHAN GISZEWSKI/
ALBERT COTTON
BRIAN COOK
CRAIG LANGHOFER
RICKY WARD
BRIAN BLONDELL
ERIC KURZHAL
LANCE ROBBINS
BRIAN OUTLAW
NATHAN GISZEWSKI
KNUTE ORANGE
BASKETBALL HEADS
WACO GARZA
SHANNON DOBRUCKI
CRAIG LAUVER
WACO GARZA
BRIAN COOK
CRAIG LAUVER
SHANNON DOBRUCKI
WACO GARZA
JOSH COUSINS
LANCE ROBBINS
CRAIG LANGHOFER
LANCE ROBBINS
CRAIG LANGHOFER
TATE LANE
BRIAN BLONDELL
RICKY WARD
BRIAN BLONDELL
LANCE ROBBINS
BRIAN BLONDELL
LANCE ROBBINS
RYAN DELEE
MANUEL HERBERT
KODELL JACKSON
MANUEL HERBERT

CLASS C

C'y

OF 1994

ya

MOST LIKELY TO

BECOME A GAME SHOW HOST

KENNY ZIELINSKI

BECOME A USED CAR SALESMAN

BRIAN BLONDELL

OWN A GARAGE

RICKY SCOTT

SUCCEED IN LIFE

ELIJAH OWENS

WIN AN OSCAR

JENNICA PAWELSKI

WIN AN OLYMPIC MEDAL

RICKEY WARD

BECOME A MILLIONAIRE

ELIJAH OWENS

WIN LOTTO/LOSE TICKET

TATE LANE

OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT

MEREDITH ANDRZJEWSKI

BE A TELEVANGELIST

ALBERT COTTON

MARRY FOR MONEY

TASHA REED

BECOME PRESIDENT

ELIJAH OWENS

WIN A NOBEL PEACE PRIZE

ALBERT COTTON

BECOME RICH AND FAMOUS

KODELL JACKSON

FUTURE PLANS

College, and plans to pursue a career in nursing.

Jennifer Carson will be going to college to get a degree in athletic training. She will probably attend IUSB for the first year, and then transfer to Manchester College.

Jessica Lentych will attend St. Mary's College to become successful in everything so she may live a very wealthy and happy life.

Tara Tidey plans on attending IUSB in the fall. She will major in pre-medicine and receive her doctorate in child psychology.

Jennica Pawelski has plans to attend IUSB and have a double major in English and Theater. She will also minor in music. She would like to teach high school theater.

Traci Miller will attend IUSB after graduating from high school. She plans on majoring in nursing, and specialize in O.B. nursing. After finishing her degree, she plans to get a degree in counseling, while focusing on teenage mothers during, before, and after leaving the hospital.

Mary Fletcher will be attending Indiana University Bloomington to major in either primary education or telecommunications. After college she plans on getting married, having at least two children, make a fortune writing novels, and retiring at 40.

Albert Cotton will major in accounting and marketing when he attends college, and after completing his degree, he will start a promising and rewarding career.

Amanda Griffis plans to attend Indiana University Bloomington, and will major in bio-chemistry, and then move on to medical school. She hopes to play soccer or golf, or intramural sports.

Rudy Garza wants to go to Indiana State to study. He's been thinking about working with younger kids as a gym teacher.

Sarah Bandera will be going to St. Mary's College. She hopes to get a good job from there, and then get married. She also hopes to have a few children. Definitely not ten!

Amanda Stone will study to be a dental hygienist at IUPUI.

Lori Oliver plans to work full time in the summer, and in the fall attend IUSB to study dental assistance.

Kristy Jaskowiak plans to attend IUSB in the fall, and transfer to Indiana University Bloomington her sophomore year. She will be majoring in psychology.

Mike Szynski plans to attend an art college and major in photography. He aspires to be a well-known photographer.

Anita Sima plans to attend college and major in business.

Pam Morris will attend Purdue University North Central in the fall, and transfer to Ball State or Purdue her sophomore year. She will study landscaping/horticulture and own her own business.

Carl Levy plans to attend Jackson State in the fall, and hopes to pursue a career in computer programming.

Michelle Wallin plans to attend IUSB to major in music/theatre and minor in English, as well as perform opera.

Jenni Wilttrout plans on attending IUSB and study to be either a dental assistant or a dental hygienist.

Adrian Velez will enter an apprenticeship, and become a carpenter. Someday he hopes to open his own business.

Lori Blackmon will travel to Florida, and attend school in the fall. After she graduates she will move and marry somebody who enjoys life as much as she does.

Diablo Pates plans to attend a four year university. He is not yet sure where he will attend.

Jessica Watts is undecided about her future plans. Her goal is to own her own club or bar; someplace to have fun.

James Mosby plans to attend Indiana University Bloomington, and earn a degree in something. He desires to be wealthy.

Dave Bowering will get a good job in cabinet working after school. He would like to save enough money to live on his own. Eventually, he would like to go to a technical school to learn more about heating and cooling systems.

Jackie Pierce plans on going to school and studying to be a nurse. She hopes to get a good paying job that she enjoys every day.

Elsa Trejo plans on going to Villa Jimenez, Michoacan Mexico for a few months. She would like to find a full-time job as a nurse's aide. She hopes to get married and have a family someday.

Drew Davis plans to study automotive body repair at a technical school in Wisconsin, start his own body shop, and fund his race team.

Gabriel Navarro will continue working at The Inn at St. Mary's College. Eventually, she hopes to get training in mechanical drafting, settle down, and start building a new attitude towards her life.

Kenya Barnes will live in Chicago with her father for the summer. In the fall, she will be taking classes at Rush Presbyterian Hospital and major in occupational therapy.

Courtney Rowell plans to attend Indiana State University to major in music production, and work part-time.

Rodney Strickland plans on getting a good paying job, and then will try to learn a trade in some school.

11

In Loving Memory of

*Ronald C. Ciesielski
Born: December 7, 1974
At Rest: May 28, 1994*

Our sincerest wishes are extended to all family and friends.

You have to count on living every single day in a way you believe will make you feel good about your life—so that if it were over tomorrow, you'd be content with yourself.

Seymour

SENIOR FAVORITES---REMEMBER WHEN

MOVIE

1. MENACE II SOCIETY
2. THE FUGITIVE/MRS. DOUBTFIRE
3. BODYGUARD

CLASS

1. ENGLISH
2. LATIN
3. MATH/GOVERNMENT

ACTOR

1. ALEC BALDWIN/STEVEN SEGAL
2. SEAN CONNERY
3. TOM CRUISE/ JEAN-CLAUDE VAN DAMME/ DENZEL WASHINGTON

SONG

1. BUMP N' GRIND
2. FRIENDS IN LOW PLACES
3. ALL FOR ONE

LUNCH SPOT

1. BURGER KING
2. MC DONALD'S
3. TACO BELL

SAYING

1. WHATEVER
2. AIN'T NOTHIN' BUT A CHICKEN
WING ON A STRING
3. COO-COO

FOOD

1. PIZZA
2. TACOS
3. FRENCH FRIES

ACTRESS

1. HALLY BERRY
2. JULIA ROBERTS
3. SHARON STONE

SPORT

1. BASKETBALL/FOOTBALL
2. SOCCER
3. BASEBALL/VOLLEYBALL

WHEN PARACHUTE PANTS WERE COOL?

TV SHOW

1. MARTIN
2. SEINFELD
3. HOME IMPROVEMENT

MALE SINGER

1. GARTH BROOKS
2. R. KELLY
3. ROD STEWART

GROUP

1. BOYS II MEN
2. JODECI
3. SALT N' PEPA/ AEROSMITH

CARTOON

1. BUGS BUNNY
2. BEAVIS AND BUTTHEAD
3. REN AND STIMPY

FEMALE SINGER

1. TONI BRAXTON
2. MARIAH CAREY
3. JANET JACKSON

COLOR

1. BLUE
2. RED
3. PURPLE

DRINK

1. MOUNTAIN DEW
2. DR. PEPPER
3. JUICE

MALE ODOR

1. JOOP/DRAKKAR
2. COOL WATER
3. OBSESSION

FEMALE SCENT

1. RED
2. ETERNITY
3. OBSESSION

THE CLASS OF 1994
WOULD LIKE TO WISH
ALL THE LEFTOVERS
GREAT TIMES AT WHS.
DON'T GET INTO TOO MUCH TROUBLE!
EVER ONWARD
GREEN!